Eleven Records by the "M-10" Seaplane.

Recently, eleven world records were set with the "M-10 domestic seaplane, with jet engines. It reached an altitude of 14,042 meters carrying a five-ton load; and also set two records for one and two-ton loads. Then, without a load it reached an altitude of 14,742 meters; with a ten-ton load it reached 12,700 meters; then 12,120 meters with a 15-ton load; and with the maximum load, 15,204 kilograms, it climbed to over two kilometers. Later, carrying five tons, it covered a distance of 1,000 kilometers, attaining the record speed of 875.86 kilometers per hour. At this time, four speed records were set: without load, and with five, two and one-ton loads.

The seaplane's crew were: Pilot First Class Georgiy Ivanovich Bur'yanov, Navigator First Class Vladimir Mikhaylovich Bogach and Radio Operator Viktor Porfir'evich Perebaylov.

These records will be submitted to the International Aviation Federation for confirmation.
