2. (U) Logistics: No problems were encountered in the logistics area.

SECTION II

Part I - Observations (Lessons Learned)

Personnel

Item: (U) TOE 19-36 and 19-37F provides for an augmentation personnel section.

Discussion: A personnel section (para 07, TOE 19-36 and para 04, TOE 19-37F) is required to provide personnel services for the 745 personnel assigned to the Battalion. Presently this augmentation is not authorized and the personnel and finance services are being furnished by untrained personnel working in unauthorized positions.

Observation: An MTOE requesting a personnel section augmentation has been submitted. Trained personnel and finance services are vitally needed.

Operations

Item: (C) Use of starlight scope.

Discussion: It has been noted that the smallest amount of illumination in the immediate area of where the starlight scope is utilized greatly reduces the effectiveness of the scope.

Observation: Starlight scope should not be used in areas where illumination is present.

Item: (FOUO) Air control of convoys.

Discussion: During the control of convoys from the air, difficulties were encountered in effectively identifying escort vehicles. Aerial identification panel markers were placed on escort vehicles, a system of color and positioning being used to identify elements and their relative convoy position. This greatly improved convoy air control effectiveness.

Observation: The use of aerial identification panel markers on convoy escort vehicles will greatly improve convoy air control effectiveness.

Training (FOUO)

Item: (FOUO) Personnel are arriving in-country without having familiarised with TOE weapons.

Discussion: Newly arrived personnel are found to be deficient in weapons training. Most arrivals have not familiarised with the M79 grenade launcher and M60 machine gun. It necessitates an immediate training program to familiarise personnel with these weapons prior to their utilization on Battalion commitments.

Observation: All personnel should receive training, to include familiarisation firing, with all weapons common to MP units during AIT training.

Maintenance and Logistics

Item: Mounting of radio antennas on 1/4 ton vehicles.

Discussion: The rear fenders of the M35 1/4 ton trucks have been found to split under the stress of the weight and movement of the antenna mount.
AVDRF-N-C

14 May 1967

SUBJECT: Oper-ational Report for Quarterly Period Ending 30
April 1967, Report Control Symbol CSFOR-65 (U)

Observation: Installation of a 1/4 inch steel plate on the top of the fender prior to installation of radio antenna has helped eliminate the problem.

Item: Preservation of M151 radiators.

Discussion: Radiators of M151 1/4 ton trucks are found to develop small pin hole leaks. Possibly this is due to chemical reactions due to chemicals found in the water used.

Observation: A study should be conducted and a method of preventing these pin hole leaks identified.

Part II - Recommendations (C)

Personnel (U)

TOE Personnel Section Augmentation

An augmentation of a personnel section as authorized by TOE should be approved to provide needed personnel services.

Operations (C)

Use of Starlight Scope (C)

Starlight scopes should be used only where absence of external light source will enhance effectiveness of the scope.

Air Control of Convoys (FOUO)

Use of aerial identification panel markers in a color and position code be used to increase convoy air control effectiveness.

Training (FOUO)

Weapons Training (FOUO)

All personnel should receive training and familiarization with weapons common to Military Police TOE during AIT training.

Maintenance and Logistics (U)

Antenna Mounts on M151 Vehicles

Recommend rear fenders of M151 vehicles be strengthened to provide adequate support for radio antenna mounts.

CONFIDENTIAL

PART II TRAINING Weapons Training (page 11): Concur. Valuable mission time is utilized training recent MP AIT graduates in the weapons they will be using in Vietnam. Other than qualification with the .45 cal pistol, and familiarization with the M-16 rifle, other weapons now being utilized in Vietnam are introduced after arrival in country by the battalion. It is recommended that AIT trainees be at least familiarized with MP TOE weapons.

1. (U) The Operational Report—Lessons Learned for quarterly period ending 30 April 1967 from the 720th Military Police Battalion, APO 96491, is forwarded herewith.

2. (FOUO) This headquarters has reviewed the report and the lst
Indorsement, considers them adequate, concurs with the observations and recommendations made, and adds the following comments:

a. Reference item under Training in Section II, Part I (page 10), and Recommendation thereto (page 11): Concur with recommendation and lst Indorsement comment. This headquarters made a similar recommendation through channels to USAHPS in May of this year.

b. Reference item in Section II, Part I, on Mounting of Radio Antennas on ½ Ton Vehicles (pages 10-11), and Recommendation thereto (page 11): Concur with this problem on ½ ton Vehicles. S-4 and Signal Officer of this headquarters are studying this problem to see if a reinforced fender is the best solution. There is a possibility that changing the location of the antenna mount will ease the stress on the metal.

c. Reference item on Preservation of M151 Radiators (page 11), and Recommendation thereto (page 12): Concur. This problem is being examined further to see if it is limited to units in this area. Model and USA numbers are also being checked for developed patterns. If the problem is command-wide, assistance from higher headquarters will be sought.
