I. PURPOSE

This Directive provides for the coordination of the personnel security programs of the Department of Defense.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of the DoD that the personnel security programs, through the stages of investigation and adjudication, be conducted on the basis that:

A. All proceedings shall be promptly initiated and expeditiously completed.

B. Every effort shall be made to protect the rights of individuals involved, consistent with the interests of national security.

C. The programs of the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, and all other components of the DoD shall be uniform as far as possible in content and in administration.
III. FUNCTIONS

A. The Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, and all other components of the DoD shall continue to conduct security investigations and adjudicative activities and perform all operating functions in accordance with references (a) through (f).

B. The General Counsel of the Department of Defense is designated as the representative of the Secretary of Defense to exercise surveillance over the personnel security programs of the DoD. The General Counsel shall assure himself of effective implementation within the OSD, the Military Departments, and all other components of the DoD, of established policies, shall take such steps as may be necessary to secure compliance therewith, and shall make such policy recommendations to the Secretary of Defense as he deems appropriate.

C. The General Counsel is authorized to conduct surveys and require reports and obtain such other information as he may deem necessary.

D. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall provide the General Counsel, at his request, with information and recommendations concerning all phases of the personnel security programs in their departments.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES

References (a) through (f) shall remain in full force and effect. All existing procedures and assignments of responsibilities within the OSD shall remain in effect, subject to the overriding responsibility of the General Counsel as set forth herein. No transfers of personnel within the OSD are authorized by this Directive.

V. CANCELLATION

Reference (g) is hereby superseded and cancelled.

VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive shall be effective immediately.
