(c) The Arms Export Control Act, as amended
(d) through (h) see enclosure 3

A. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

Pursuant to authority vested in the Secretary of Defense under the provisions of title 10, United States Code, this Directive reissues reference (a), establishes the Defense Security Assistance Agency (hereafter referred to as "DSAA") and defines responsibilities, functions, authorities and relationships of DSAA as outlined below.

B. MISSION

DSAA shall direct, administer, and supervise the execution of security assistance programs. "Security assistance" as used in this Directive, refers to the responsibilities of the Secretary of Defense under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended (reference (b)), the Arms Export Control Act, as amended (reference (c)), related statutory authorities and Executive Orders and Directives relating to the administration of Military Assistance, International Military Education and Training, credit financing and Foreign Military Sales (references (d), (e), (f)).

C. ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT

1. DSAA is established as a separate agency of the Department of Defense under the direction, authority and control of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (International Security Affairs) (hereinafter referred to as "ASD(ISA)").
2. DSAA shall consist of a Director and such subordinate organizational elements as are established by the Director within resources authorized by the Secretary of Defense.

3. The Director, DSAA, may also serve as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Security Assistance) in the Office of the ASD(ISA).

D. RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

1. The Director, DSAA, shall:

a. Organize, direct and manage the DSAA and all resources assigned to the DSAA.

b. Direct, administer, and supervise, within the policies established by the ASD(ISA), Security Assistance planning and programs. The administration of sales programs may be delegated in whole or in part to the Military Departments, but such administration will be under the direction and supervision of the DSAA.

c. Supervise formulation of detailed Security Assistance programs in accordance with approved guidance and policies.

d. Coordinate the formulation and execution of Security Assistance programs with other governmental agencies under the guidance of the ASD(ISA).

e. Review evaluations of Security Assistance program administration, including responsibility with respect to GAO and other audits.

f. Conduct international logistics and sales negotiations with foreign countries, as directed by the ASD(ISA) and in coordination with the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering and the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower, Reserve Affairs and Logistics), as appropriate.

g. Serve as DoD focal point for liaison with U.S. industry with respect to Security Assistance activities.

h. Manage the credit financing program, including the conclusion of credit agreements and the issuance of guaranties.

i. Develop and promulgate Security Assistance procedures (MASM) 5105.38-M (reference (g)).

j. Supervise and perform, as appropriate, accounting and reporting functions for Security Assistance programs.

k. Develop and operate the data processing system and maintain the worldwide data base required by all levels of management for the Security Assistance program.
1. Maintain liaison with Congress on Security Assistance legislation and related matters and provide support to the ASD(ISA) for the presentation of the annual Security Assistance program before the Congress.

m. Provide data support for the annual Security Assistance budget for inclusion in the President's budget.

n. Keep the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Commanders of the Unified Commands fully informed of Security Assistance matters.

o. Direct and supervise organization, functions, and staffing of DoD elements in foreign countries responsible for managing Security Assistance programs.

p. Perform such other functions as assigned by the ASD(ISA).

2. The ASD(ISA) shall:

a. Establish DoD Security Assistance policies.

b. Coordinate the activities of DoD components related to Security Assistance affairs.

c. Serve as the principal DoD point of contact and spokesman regarding Security Assistance policy, representing the DoD with other governmental agencies with respect to such matters.

3. The basic responsibilities and functions of other DoD components relating to Security Assistance remain as assigned in DoD Directive 5132.3 (reference (d)).

E. AUTHORITY

The Director, DSAA, is specifically delegated authority to:

1. Have free and unrestricted access to, and direct communication with, all elements of the Department of Defense and other executive departments and agencies as necessary. All ASD(ISA) and DSAA Security Assistance directives and communications to the Unified and Specified Commands, the Military Departments, and the Military Assistance Advisory Groups, which have military operational implications, shall be coordinated with the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Conversely, all Joint Chiefs of Staff directives and communications to the Unified and Specified Commands or the Military Departments, which pertain to Security Assistance affairs, shall be coordinated with the ASD(ISA).

2. Obtain such information, consistent with the policies and criteria of DoD Directive 5000.19 (reference (h)), advice, and assistance from other DoD components as may be necessary for the performance of assigned functions and responsibilities.
3. Exercise the redelegation of authority contained in enclosures 1 and 2 of this Directive.

F. RELATIONSHIPS

1. In the performance of his functions, the Director, DSAA shall:

   a. Maintain appropriate liaison with other DoD components for the exchange of information on programs in the field of assigned responsibilities.

   b. Make use of established facilities and services in the DoD or other governmental agencies wherever practicable to achieve maximum efficiency and economy.

   c. Conduct activities involving financial management, fiscal matters, accounting, budgeting, statistical reporting, and the international balance of payments, in accordance with policies and procedures established by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Comptroller).

2. The Military Departments and other DoD components shall provide support, within their respective fields of responsibility, to the Director, DSAA, to assist in carrying out assigned responsibilities and functions of DSAA.

G. ADMINISTRATION

1. The Director, DSAA, shall be appointed by the Secretary of Defense.

2. The appointment of other personnel to the Agency will be subject to the approval of the Director, DSAA, and the ASD(ISA).

3. DSAA will be authorized such personnel, facilities, funds, and other administrative support as the Secretary of Defense deems necessary.
4. The Military Departments will assign military personnel to DSAA in accordance with approved authorizations and procedures for assignment to joint duty.

H. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive is effective immediately.
