Dear Reader:

This product was prepared by the staff of the Federal Research Division of the Library of Congress under an interagency agreement with the sponsoring United States Government agency.

The Federal Research Division is the Library of Congress's primary fee-for-service research unit. At the request of Executive and Judicial branch agencies of the United States Government and on a cost-recovery basis, the Division prepares studies and reports, chronologies, bibliographies, foreign-language abstracts, databases, and other tailored products in hard-copy and electronic media. The subjects researched include the broad spectrum of social sciences, physical sciences, and the humanities.

For additional information on obtaining the research and analytical services of the Federal Research Division, please call 202-707-9905, fax 202-707-9920, via Internet frd@mail.loc.gov, or write to Marketing Coordinator, Federal Research Division, Library of Congress, Washington, DC 20540-4840.

PREFACE

This research aid provides open source information on 58 military and civilian personnel associated with the Chinese nuclear and space program.

The information in this report, current as of 18 February 1987, was generated from a variety of Chinese sources- including Xinhua News Agency reports; Beijing Review and China Daily; provincial radio broadcasts; standard biographic dictionaries in both Chinese and English; and secondary sources, primarily Western, which provide information on Chinese nuclear and space personnel.

While there is ample information derived from multiple sources for most key and senior personnel, information on lower-level personnel and those who have only recently risen to prominence is much more limited.
