organs of the state administration and other state organs explanations, information and other supporting information which they need for their activity. For this purpose they may also conduct investigations in the areas of their activity. Sub-commissions also have the same privileges.

(1) Commissions of the Slovak National Council submit reports of their activity to the Slovak National Council and its presidium.

(2) Commissions of the Slovak National Council submit their own topics to the presidium of the Slovak National Council which will discuss them and submit a report regarding them to the Slovak National Council.

If the decision or provision of a commission of the Slovak National Council is contradictory to the decisions or provisions of higher organs, then the presidium of the Slovak National Council may reject it.
Part VI.

Members of the Slovak National Council

32.

Members of the Slovak National Council have the right:
 a) to submit to the Slovak National Council bills of the Slovak National Council and other proposals;
 b) to present questions to the commissioners of the Slovak National Council, the chairman of the Slovak National Council and the presidium of the Slovak National Council. Questions may be verbal or in writing; the persons questioned must reply to the questions within 30 days;
 c) to request from organs of the state administration and other organs explanations necessary for their activity.

Members of the Slovak National Council are obliged:
 a) to work in their electoral area, to submit to their electors regular accounts of their activity and give them reports of the activity of the Slovak National Council; to explain to the voters the significance of laws approved by the National Assembly and the Slovak National Council and to exert such an influence that state and economic organs and the citizens shall observe the laws; in daily life to verify how the laws are being executed and how effective they are;
 b) to take care in their work of the proposals, complaints and desires of the citizens and to make use of the experiences gained in contacts with the citizens in the Slovak National Council and its organs;
 c) to work closely with the national committees and organizations of workers and to assist them in executing the laws and decisions of the party and government especially by winning over the citizens of their electoral districts for the active fulfillment of the tasks of socialist reconstruction and the development of the creative forces of the workers.

(1) Members of the Slovak National Council are obliged actively and with initiative to participate in all the work of the Slovak National Council, especially the meetings of the Slovak National Council and its commissions and sub-commissions. Every member of the Slovak National Council is by principle obliged to work on some commission of the Slovak National Council.
(2) If a member of the Slovak National Council is unable to participate in the work of the Slovak National Council or its organs he must have an excuse.

(3) A member of the Slovak National Council may request for serious reasons a leave of absence from the presidium of the Slovak National Council.

35.

Members of national committees and citizens and organizations of workers shall support the members of the Slovak National Council in their work and assist them in the fulfillment of their tasks.

Regional Association of Members and Council of Members of the Slovak National Council

(1) In the interest of the best execution of their work members of the Slovak National Council elected on the territory of a pertinent region are associated in a regional association of members.

(2) At the meetings of the regional associations of members directives for the work of members of the Slovak National Council in their electoral districts are discussed, their activity is coordinated, methods of their work are evaluated, experiences from their activity are exchanged and generalized and further tasks are designated.

37.

The presidium of the Slovak National Council and representatives of regional associations of members -- members of the Slovak National Council -- form the council of members of the Slovak National Council. Each regional association of members sends one representative to the council of members of the Slovak National Council. The chairman of the Slovak National Council may invite to the council of members of the Slovak National Council additional members of the Slovak National Council.

38.

(1) The council of members of the Slovak National Council assists the presidium of the Slovak National Council in verifying the orderly course of work of the Slovak National Council, in coordinating the work of regional associations of members and in following up and coordinating the activity of members of the Slovak National Council in electoral districts.
(2) The chairman of the Slovak National Council directs the work of the council of members of the Slovak National Council.

Part VII.

Procedures on Bills

39.

Bills of the Slovak National Council may be presented by the members, commissions and presidium of the Slovak National Council.

40.

(1) All bills of the Slovak National Council submitted for their discussion must contain in a precise statement what the Slovak National Council is to decide, and they must be accompanied by a budget regarding the financial outlay of the bill with a proposal for covering the necessary expenditures, all this in harmony with the budget law.

(2) Whether or not a bill of the Slovak National Council, presented by the members or an individual member of the Slovak National Council, is to become the subject of deliberations of the Slovak National Council will be decided by the presidium of the Slovak National Council. If the presidium of the Slovak National Council rejects the bill the members (member) of the Slovak National Council may request that the bill be placed on the program of discussions at the next meeting of the Slovak National Council. The Slovak National Council shall decide regarding such a request by a vote without debate.

Bills of the Slovak National Council which are to become the subject of discussions of the Slovak National Council shall be assigned by the presidium of the Slovak National Council to the proper commission of the Slovak National Council, if it does not keep it for its own deliberation or if the Slovak National Council itself will not discuss it.

42.

(1) For the discussion of a bill of the Slovak National Council assigned to a commission of the Slovak National Council a reporter shall be designated by the chairman of the commission who shall present a report to the Slovak National Council regarding the results of the discussion of the commission of the Slovak National Council. In addition to the chief reporter, a reporter for individual sections may also be designated.

(2) If several commissions of the Slovak National Council are discussing the same bill of the Slovak National Council the report may be given by the reporter or reporters who were agreed upon by the chairmen of the commissions of the Slovak National Council.

43.

Laws of the Slovak National Council shall be announced by the presidium of the Slovak National Council within 14 days after their approval. They are announced in the Journal of Laws of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic.

Statutory Meetings of the Slovak National Council

(1) Members of the Slovak National Council shall meet after their election for the first statutory meeting of the Slovak National Council.

(2) The present chairman of the Slovak National Council shall summon the members of the Slovak National Council to a statutory meeting not later than 4 weeks after elections.

45.

(1) The statutory meeting of the Slovak National Council, until the presidium of the newly-elected Slovak National Council is elected, shall be conducted by the present chairman of the Slovak National Council, or by one of the vice-chairmen of the Slovak National Council, this being done even when they are not members of the newly-elected Slovak National Council.

(2) The presiding officer shall receive the pledge of the members of the Slovak National Council, present a report of the activity of the presidium of the Slovak National Council for the period since the last session of the Slovak National Council and conduct elections of the chairman of the Slovak National Council, its vice-chairmen and other members of the presidium of the Slovak National Council.

(1) Immediately after the election of the presidium of the Slovak National Council the newly-elected chairman of the Slovak National Council shall take over the conduct of the meeting; he shall accept the pledge of the temporary chairman, if he is a member of the newly-elected Slovak National Council, and shall conduct elections of the secretaries and the mandate commission of the Slovak National Council.

(2) At the statutory meeting of the Slovak National Council the Slovak National Council shall elect the commissions of the Slovak National Council and the chairmen of individual commissions of the Slovak National Council. At the same time the Slovak National Council shall elect from among the members of the presidium of the Slovak National Council commissioners of the Slovak National Council.

Part VIII.

Apparatus of the Slovak National Council

47.

(1) As the executive apparatus of the Slovak National Council and its organs the following departments of the Slovak National Council are established:

Apparatus of the Slovak Planning Commission;
Department of the Slovak National Council for Financial Matters;
Department of the Slovak National Council for State Control;
Department of the Slovak National Council for Agriculture;
Department of the Slovak National Council for Construction;
Department of the Slovak National Council for Education and Culture; Department of the Slovak National Council for Health, and Department of the Slovak National Council for Justice.

(2) The vice-chairman of the Slovak National Council as chairman of the Slovak Planning Commission is the head of the apparatus of the Slovak Planning Commission.

(3) Commissioners of the Slovak National Council are at the head of departments of the Slovak National Council.

For the auxiliary organizational, administrative and technical work the presidium of the Slovak National Council shall establish joint auxiliary and functional groups of the Slovak National Council. The presidium of the Slovak National Council also regulates the internal organization of the departments of the Slovak National Council and the joint auxiliary and functional groups of the Slovak National Council.
49.

(1) The apparatus of the Slovak Planning Commission, departments of the Slovak National Council and joint auxiliary and functional groups shall form a unified apparatus of the Slovak National Council. The departments of the Slovak National Council are also the apparatus of the pertinent commissions of the Slovak National Council.

(2) In their activity the departments of the Slovak National Council are guided by the directives of the Slovak National Council, its presidium, the chairman of the Slovak National Council, commissions of the Slovak National Council and the appropriate commissioners of the Slovak National Council.

Part IX.

General and Concluding Provisions

50.

The internal relations and further rules of activity of the Slovak National Council and its organs shall be regulated by the Slovak National Council or its presidium by decisions within the framework of these procedures and functions.

51.

52.

This law takes effect on the day of publication; the presidium of the Slovak National Council shall execute it.
