SUMMARY of CHANGE

AR 10–72
Field Operating Agencies of The Judge Advocate General

This regulation has been completely revised. It replaces AR 10–72, U.S. Army Legal Services Agency. AR 10–73, The Judge Advocate General’s School. And AR 10–74, United States Army Claims Service, all of which were previously published as separate regulations. This regulation-- o Prescribes the organization and functions of the U.S. Army Legal Services Agency (chap 2).

o Prescribes the organization and functions of The Judge Advocate General’s School (chap 3).

o Prescribes the organization and functions of The United States Army Claims Service (chap 4).
Organization and Functions

Field Operating Agencies of The Judge Advocate General

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:
CARL E. VUONO
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

MILTON H. HAMILTON
Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army

History. This UPDATE printing publishes a revision of this publication. Because the publication has been extensively revised, the changed portions have not been highlighted.

Summary. This regulation covers the missions and functions of field operating agencies of The Judge Advocate General. They are U.S. Army Legal Services Agency, The Judge Advocate General’s School, U.S. Army, and the U.S. Army Claims Service.

Applicability. This regulation applies to the Active Army, the Army National Guard (ARNG), and the U.S. Army Reserve (USAR).

Proponent and exception authority. Not applicable

Army management control process. This regulation is not subject to the requirements of AR 11–2. It does not contain internal control provisions.

Supplementation. Supplementation of this regulation and establishment of command and local forms are prohibited without prior approval from HQDA (DADA–ZX), WASH DC 20310–2204.

Interim changes. Interim changes to this regulation are not official unless they are authenticated by the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army. Users will destroy interim changes on their expiration dates unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

Suggested Improvements. The proponent agency of this regulation is the Office of The Judge Advocate General. Users are invited to send comments and suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Forms) directly to HQDA (DADA–ZX), WASH DC 20310–2200.

Distribution. Active Army, USAR, and NGB, C.

Chapter 2
United States Army Legal Services Agency

2–1. Mission
The mission of USALSA is to—

a. Provide administrative, personnel, fiscal, and logistical support, including legal research services, for all elements of the agency according to law and the policy of The Judge Advocate General (TJAG).

b. Promote effective use of lawyers and judicial personnel.

c. Guarantee independence of Army judges and defense counsel.

d. Develop and implement a standard automated Military Justice Information System under the Legal Automation Army-Wide System project. This system is known as the Army Courts-Martial Information System (ACMIS).

e. Manage training of assigned individual mobilization augmentees.

2–2. Functions
a. The Commander, USALSA, as Chief, U.S. Army Judiciary, supervises the following activities and their functions:

   (1) U.S. Army Court of Military Review (ACMR), which performs appellate review of courts-martial pursuant to Article 66, Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), and AR 27–13 when the approved sentence includes death, punitive discharge, or confinement for 1 year or more. ACMR reviews records of trial as directed by the ACMR, the USCMA, and the Supreme Court.

   (2) The Office of the Judicial Advisor/Clerk of Court, which—

      (a) Administers the military appellate process in cases considered by the ACMR.

      (b) Develops statistical information concerning the administration of military justice.

      (c) Acts as official custodian of court-martial and statistical records.

      (d) Arranges appearance of civilian witnesses located in the continental United States (CONUS) for courts-martial conducted overseas.

      (3) The U.S. Army Trial Judiciary, which—

         (a) Provides full-time military judges to preside over general and special courts-martial throughout the Army.

         (b) Supervises the Military Magistrate program.

         (4) Examination and New Trials Division, which—

            (a) Examines general courts-martial records of trial that are not reviewed by ACMR.

            (b) Processes petitions for new trials and applications for extraordinary relief under UCMJ, Arts. 69 and 73.

            (c) Reviews records of trial received under UCMJ, Art. 64(c)(3).

            (d) Examines cases involving military commissions and courts of inquiry.

   (5) USALSA Information Management Office, which—

     (a) Provides automation planning and support for USALSA divisions and offices.

     (b) Develops and implements ACMIS.

     (c) The Assistant Judge Advocate General for Military Law (AJAG/MIL) exercises technical supervision and operational control over the following USALSA activities and their functions:

        (1) Government Appellate Division (GAD), which—

           (a) Presents briefs and arguments under UCMJ, Art. 70.

           (b) Represents the United States before the ACMR, the U.S. Court of Military Appeals (USCMA), and, by request of the U.S. Attorney General, the Supreme Court.

           (c) Advises TJAG on courts-martial or appeal recommended for certification to the USCMA or for petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court.

           (d) Advises Staff Judge Advocates regarding petitions for extraordinary writs and appeals on behalf of the United States in ongoing courts-martial. The Chief, GAD, authorizes Government appeals.

           (e) Supervises the Trial Counsel Assistance Program, which serves as a source of information, advice, and legal education for trial counsel.

        (2) Joint Service Committee on Military Justice. AJAG/MIL is a working group member who executes the responsibilities of TJAG prescribed by UCMJ, Art. 67(g); Executive Order 12484, 13 July 1984; and Department of Defense (DOD) Directive 5500.17, 23 January 1985.

        (3) Legal Assistance Office, which provides professional advice and direct assistance to eligible clients at departmental headquarters and policy direction for the Army-wide legal assistance program (AR 27–3).

        (4) The Assistant Judge Advocate General for Civil Law exercises technical supervision and operational control over the following USALSA activities and their functions:

           (1) Defense Appellate Division, which presents briefs and arguments under UCMJ, Art. 70, and represents military accused before the ACMR, the USCMA, and the Supreme Court.

           (2) U.S. Army Trial Defense Service, which—

              (a) Provides defense counsel services for Army personnel as authorized by law and regulation.

              (b) Develops programs and policies to promote effective and efficient use of defense counsel resources and to enhance professional qualifications of attorneys providing defense services.

           (3) Contract Appeals Division, which—

              (a) Represents the Army in all cases before the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals (ASBCA) and all cases (except Corps of Engineers and U.S. Army Materiel Command cases) before the General Services Board of Contract Appeals. (Contract Appeals may also, when requested, represent other Government agencies before the appropriate boards of contract appeals.)

              (b) Provides liaison with the Department of Justice (DOJ) for appeals from the ASBCA to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Upon delegation from the Litigation Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General (OTJAG), the Contract Appeals Division represents the Army in Federal courts on other contract disputes.

           (c) Represents other Government agencies upon request.

           (d) Provides review of bonds and consents of surety.

           (4) Regulatory Law Office, which—

              (a) Represents the consumer interests of Department of the Army (DA), DOD, and other Federal agencies in proceedings before State and Federal regulatory commissions. Such proceedings involve rates and services of utility, transportation, and communication companies, and the Postal Service.

              (b) Provides legal advice to Army elements in regulatory law matters.

           (5) Procurement Fraud Division, which—

              (a) Serves pursuant to DOD Directive 7050.5 as the Army single, centralized organization to monitor and ensure coordination of remedies in significant cases of procurement fraud or corruption.

AR 10–72 • 20 March 1989
(b) Serves as Fraud Advisor to the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Research, Development, and Acquisition).
