Report Documentation Page

Public reporting burden for the collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Washington Headquarters Services, Directorate for Information Operations and Reports, 1215 Jefferson Davis Highway, Suite 1204, Arlington VA 22202-4302. Respondents should be aware that notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person shall be subject to a penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information if it does not display a currently valid OMB control number.

Standard Form 298 (Rev. 8-98) | Prescribed by ANSI Std Z39-18
Let the generations know that the women in uniform also guaranteed their freedom. That our resolve was as great as the brave men who stood among us, and with victory our hearts were just as full and beat just as fast. That the tears fell just as hard for those we left behind us.

– 1LT Anne (Sosh) Brehm, U.S. Army Nurse Corps (WWII), Women in Military Service for America Memorial
PREFACE

The women who donned military uniforms in the American Revolutionary War led the way for those women who wear the uniforms of today's military. The U.S. Army War College Library compiled Women in the Military: A Selected Bibliography to highlight some of the accomplishments and challenges faced by these servicewomen.

With certain exceptions, the materials in this bibliography are dated from 2005 to the present. For older materials, please see Women in the Military: A Selected Bibliography, compiled by Jacqueline S. Bey, January 2005. All items are available through the USAWC Library. For your convenience, we have added U.S. Army War College Library call numbers, Internet addresses, or database links at the end of each entry. Web sites were accessed August 2009.

This bibliography and others compiled by our research librarians are available online through the Library's home page at http://www.carlisle.army.mil/library/bibliographies.htm.

For additional information, please contact the Research and Information Services Branch, U.S. Army War College Library, by sending an e-mail message to USAWC.LibraryR@us.army.mil or by phoning commercial (717) 245-3660 or DSN 242-3660.
