The Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense.

C1.2.2. DoD Directive. A DoD issuance that transmits information required by law, the President, or the Secretary of Defense that applies to all branches of the Department of Defense on the way they initiate, govern, or regulate actions. DoD Directives:

C1.2.2.1. Establish or describe policy, programs, and organizations.

C1.2.2.2. Define missions.

C1.2.2.3. Provide authority.

C1.2.2.4. Assign responsibilities.

C1.2.2.5. Do not prescribe one-time tasks or deadline assignments.

C1.2.3. DoD Directive-Type Memorandums

C1.2.3.1. Memorandums that the Secretary of Defense, the Deputy Secretary of Defense, or the OSD Principal Staff Assistants (PSAs) issue that cannot be published in the DoD Directives System because of time constraints. Directive-Type memorandums that the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense signs shall implement policy. Directive-Type memorandums that OSD PSAs sign promulgate procedures for implementing policy documents, such as DoD Directives, Federal laws, and Executive orders.

C1.2.3.2. The office of primary responsibility shall convert a Directive-Type Memorandum into a DoD issuance within 180 days from the date of signature, unless the subject is classified, and has limited distribution or has limited or temporary relevance. A copy of the signed memo shall go to the Directives Section. See figures C1.F1 and C1.F2.

C1.2.4. DoD Directives System. The single, uniform system that individuals shall use when writing DoD issuances and directive-type memorandums that convey DoD policies, responsibilities, and procedures. It allows the DoD Components to process, review, approve, publish, and distribute DoD issuances efficiently.

C1.2.5. DoD Instruction. A DoD issuance that implements policies and tells the user how to carry out a policy, operate a program or activity, and assign responsibilities.

C1.2.6. DoD Issuances. DoD Directives, DoD Instructions, DoD Publications, Administrative Instructions, and their changes.

C1.2.7. DoD Publication. A DoD issuance that implements or supplements DoD Directives and DoD Instructions. DoD Publications provide standard procedures about how users shall manage or operate systems and distribute administrative information. Publications include Catalogs, Directories, Guides, Handbooks, Indexes, Inventories, Lists, Manuals, Modules, Pamphlets, Plans, Regulations, Standards, and Supplements.

C1.2.8. Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD). The principal staff element used by the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense to exercise authority, direction, and control over the Department of Defense.

C1.2.8.5. The General Counsel of the Department of Defense (GC, DoD); the Inspector General of the Department of Defense (IG, DoD); the Assistants to the Secretary of Defense (ATSDs); the OSD Directors and the Defense Agency Directors or equivalents who report directly to the Secretary or Deputy Secretary; and the staff offices the Secretary establishes to assist in carrying out assigned responsibilities.

C1.2.9. OSD Principal Staff Assistants (PSAs). Also referred to as political appointees (when applicable). See paragraph C1.2.8., above.
C1.2.10. Other Organizational Entities within the Department of Defense. Organizations established under the Secretary's authority in 10 U.S.C. 113 or 125 (reference (b)), but excluding those designated under Section 191 of reference (c)). Those organizations include, but are not limited to the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences (USUHS) and the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO).

MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARIES OF THE MILITARY DEPARTMENTS
CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
UNDER SECRETARIES OF DEFENSE
ASSISTANT SECRETARIES OF DEFENSE
GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
DIRECTOR OPERATIONAL TEST AND EVALUATION
ASSISTANT TO THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT
DIRECTORS OF DEFENSE AGENCIES

SUBJECT: Criteria for Awarding Two New Joint-Military Decorations

This directive-type memorandum provides the DoD policy for the awarding of the Joint-Service Special Medal (JSSM) and the Joint-Service Activity Medal (JSAM), which completes the spectrum of joint decorations and provides the needed latitude to recognize truly outstanding service.

The JSSM should be used to recognize significant contributions in temporary, short-term duties, such as those on joint commissions, studies, and other special projects. The JSAM should be used to recognize significant contributions in permanent, long-term duties in the person’s career field.

It is necessary that each of us ensure that our measure for award recommendations and approvals is highly demanding and results in the appropriate level of decoration for deserving individuals. Appropriate awards enhance morale and preserve the value and prestige of the joint decorations. Inappropriate awards have the opposite effect.

This memorandum is effective immediately. A DoD Directive governing the awards programs shall be issued within 180 days.

Appropriate awards enhance morale and preserve the value and prestige of the joint decorations. Inappropriate awards have the opposite effect.

This memorandum is effective immediately. A DoD issuance governing the awards programs shall be issued within 180 days.
C1.5. INTERNAL REVIEW

C1.5.1. DoD issuances shall be reviewed every 5 years by the originating OSD or DoD Component to ensure that the issuances are necessary; currently applicable; and consistent with DoD policy, existing law, and statutory authority.

C1.5.2. The DA&M, OSD, shall provide the OSD PSAs with a list of DoD issuances under their cognizance for review.

C1.5.3. On completion of the review, the PSAs shall certify by memorandum to the DA&M, OSD, whether the issuances shall be continued, revised, or canceled. DoD issuances determined to be essential, but not current, shall be reissued. DoD issuances that have served their intended purpose shall be canceled. If the DoD issuance is 5 years or older, the DoD issuance shall be reissued with a new date and signature.

C1.6. NUMBERING SYSTEM AND RECORDS MANAGEMENT

C1.6.1. Numbering System of DoD Issuances

C1.6.1.1. Subject Groups. The Directives Section shall assign numbers to DoD issuances according to subject groups. The numbering system consists of four digits, representing a major subject group and its subgroup, followed by a decimal point and the sequential number of the subgroup; e.g., for DoD Directive 5025.1, the Directive is in the major subject group "5000," the number "25" represents the subgroup, and the number "1" indicates that the Directive is the first document assigned to that subgroup. The major subject groups are as follows:

C1.6.1.1.1. 1000. - Manpower and Personnel, and Readiness (Civilian, Military, National Guard and Reserve).

C1.6.1.1.2. 2000. - International and Foreign Affairs.

C1.6.1.1.3. 3000. - Computer Language, Intelligence, Plans and Operations, Research and Development, Reconnaissance, and Space-Based Matters Surveillance.

C1.6.1.1.4. 4000. - Logistics, Natural Resources, and Environment.

C1.6.1.1.6. 6000. - Health.

C1.6.1.1.7. 7000. - Audits, Budget, Finance, and Information Control.
C1.6.1.1.8. 8000. - Information Management/Information Technology (IM/IT).

C1.6.1.1.9. A listing of subgroups is in Chapter 1 of DoD 5025.1-I (reference (d)).

C1.6.1.2. Draft versions of newly developed DoD Directives and Instructions shall carry alphabetical designations following the decimal point; e.g., DoD Directive 8210.aa or 8210.bb. The suffix "aa" indicates that the DoD issuance is the first draft document in the 8210 subgroup; "bb" is the second draft document in the subgroup. The Directives Section shall assign alphabetical designations. Do not use the "xx" designation. If you are unable to determine the subject group or subgroup to use, leave it blank.

C1.6.1.3. DoD Publications. A DoD Publication is assigned the same number of its authorizing DoD Directive or Instruction, followed by a suffix identifying the type of Publication.

C1.6.1.5. Reuse of Numbers. DoD issuance numbers may not be reused unless the existing DoD Directive, Instruction, or Publication is reissued.

C1.6.2. Records Management

C1.6.2.1. The Directives Section retires the official case file for each DoD issuance to the National Records Center. The file constitutes the historical development of the issuance and shall include the following:

C1.6.2.1.1. The original DoD issuance.

C1.6.2.1.2. The original signed coordination papers.

C1.6.2.2. DoD Executive Agents for DoD issuances shall be responsible for the records management of such issuances.

C1.6.3. Request for and Release of Coordination Papers. The Directives Section is not authorized to release coordination papers to requesters without the written consent of the originating OSD or the DoD Component.
C2. CHAPTER 2

DoD DIRECTIVES

C2.1. HOW TO PREPARE DoD DIRECTIVES

Organize DoD Directives as follows:

C2.1.1. Headers

C2.1.1.1. On the first page, place the Directive number in the upper right corner of the issuance. Below it, type your organization's abbreviation. On each following page, place the Directive number 1/2 to 3/4 of an inch from the top of the page. Leave room for the full date after the Directive number on all pages.

C2.1.1.2. The Directives Section shall assign a new Directive a number after the Secretary or Deputy Secretary has signed it.

C2.1.1.3. The Directives Section shall place the date on all pages once the Directive has been signed.

!DoDD 6789.10, May 7, 2010

C2.1.2. Subject Line

C2.1.2.1. Type the word "SUBJECT" in all caps. Then, state the Directive's topic in no more than three lines and in block style.

C2.1.2.2. Write out a full name with the acronym or abbreviation beside it in parentheses.

C2.1.2.3. Do not use the exact same subject line for more than one issuance.

!SUBJECT: Sample of the Subject Line of a DoD Issuance When the Subject Has A Very Long Title
C2.1.3. References

C2.1.3.1. List references in the order they appear in the text.

C2.1.3.2. Use a maximum of six references on the first page. If there are more than six, place the first four on the first page. List the remaining references in enclosure 1. See figure C2.F3.

C2.1.3.3. When a DoD Directive contains more than 26 references, use a double lettering system; e.g., aa - az followed by ba - bz, etc. Do not use triple letters. See figure C2.F3.

C2.1.3.4. When you are canceling one issuance with another, place the words "hereby canceled" in parentheses after the date of the document; e.g., DoD Directive 3990.1, "Verification of Logistical Support," April 1, 1989 (hereby canceled).

C2.1.3.5. When a reissued DoD Directive continues to authorize a DoD Publication, cite the Publication.

C2.1.3.6. Do not cite Military Department or joint-Service publications in DoD Directives.

C2.1.3.7. Use a footnote to show readers precisely where to find documents that are not readily available to all users in the DoD Directives System.

C2.1.3.8. Do not list unpublished material, such as drafts and documents that usually are not available to readers.

C2.1.3.9. Do not list documents that you are in the process of canceling.

C2.1.3.10. References as Enclosures. Do not include any documents you list in the reference section as an enclosure.

C2.1.4. Legal Citations

C2.1.4.1. Use a DoD issuance as the reference citation when it has implemented an Executive order, public law, or other statute; e.g., use DoD Directive 5400.7, "DoD Freedom of Information Act Program," May 13, 1988.

C2.1.4.2. When you are implementing a specific statute that is in the United States Code (U.S.C.), list the U.S.C.; e.g., Section 1175 of title 10, United States Code. You may cite two or more sections; e.g., Sections 10605-10607 of title 42, United States Code.
C2.1.4.3. If the statute is not in a part of the U.S.C., use the public law citation when it applies; e.g., Public Law 103-139, "Department of Defense Appropriations Act of 1994," November 11, 1993. Verify the proper statutory authority with the Office of the General Counsel, Department of Defense (OGC, DoD), during the drafting phase. NOTE: Public laws were not codified before 1950.

C2.1.4.4. Use the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) citation when referencing a document that has been published in the CFR (e.g., Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101.20, "Management of Buildings and Grounds," current edition); if it has not been, use the Federal Register citation.

C2.1.4.5. When a DoD Directive contains more than 26 references, use a double lettering system; beginning with aa then ab, etc. Do NOT use triple letters. See figure C2.F3.

They shall be originals or camera-ready copies. List the enclosures on the signature page. Continued references are enclosure 1, and definitions are enclosure 2. Align the words "Enclosures - 2" flush with the left margin, indenting the list in increments 1/4 of an inch. Identify the enclosures using an "E" before the enclosure number. For example, enclosure 1 is identified using E1. preceding the title of the enclosure. See figure C2.F11.

C2.1.5.11. Attachments to Enclosures. List attachments on the last page of an enclosure in the same manner as listing enclosures at the end of the main body of the Directive. Attachments shall be originals or camera-ready copies. See figure C2.F11.

C2.2. CHARTERS

The Director of Organizational and Management Planning (O&MP) develops organizational charter Directives for all OSD PSAs, Defense Agencies, DoD Field Activities, and other major organizational entities within the Department of Defense.

C2.3. STYLE AND FORMAT

C2.3.1. Writing Style

C2.3.1.1. Write DoD Directives clearly and concisely. Organize their contents to address what the readers know, what they do not know, what they shall do with the information, and the results they expect to gain. Apply the following general principles and grammar:

C2.3.1.1.1. Use short simple words and limit sentences to one thought. Keep sentences brief (average of 20 or fewer words).

C2.3.1.1.2. Use parallel construction (the same grammatical structure for similar or related ideas). See figure C2.F13.

This Directive reissues reference (a) under the authority of reference (b) to:

1.1. Update DoD policy on personnel data.
1.2. Establish a personnel committee.
1.3. Designate Reserve component categories.

C2.3.1.1.3. Write in the active voice (name an actor with the action immediately after) because it is more direct and forceful; e.g., "The Chair shall forward one information copy of the board meeting minutes to the members."
C2.3.1.1.4. When possible, use paragraph headings to highlight important concepts so the reader may see at a glance what the paragraph is about. Avoid long, rambling, disjointed paragraphs, especially those with many subparagraphs.

C2.3.1.1.5. Helping Verbs. Use a helping verb to express the degree of obligation, as illustrated in the following table:

Table C2.T1. Use of Helping Verbs in DoD Directives

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Helping Verbs</th>
<th>Degree of Restriction</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Shall</td>
<td>Action is mandatory.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May</td>
<td>Action is optional.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C2.3.1.1.6. Gender-Specific Language. Use the phrase "he and she," rather than writing "he" or "she" separately as generic pronouns. See appendix 2.

C2.3.1.1.7. Personal Pronouns. Do not use the personal pronouns "I" and "me."

C2.3.1.1.8. Abbreviations and Acronyms

C2.3.1.1.8.1. Use an abbreviation or acronym in parentheses after a term first appears, but only if you use it more than once. Generally, you should not use the articles "the," "a," and "an" before abbreviations and acronyms; e.g., write "OSD," and "MARS," not "the OSD" and "a MARS" when used as a unit modifier or adjective.

C2.3.1.1.8.2. Exceptions to subparagraph C2.3.1.1.8.1., above:

C2.3.1.1.8.2.1. Department of Defense and United States. When using those terms as adjectives, write the abbreviations without parentheses. When using them as nouns, spell them out and omit the abbreviations.

C2.3.1.1.8.2.2. Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Joint Chiefs of Staff; or Joint Staff. Always use "The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff" in DoD Directives.

C2.3.1.1.8.2.3. OSD Principal Staff Assistants. See paragraph C1.2.8., above.

C2.3.1.1.8.2.4. In the RESPONSIBILITIES section, spell out the title of a key official. Do not use abbreviations in the first line identification of the Principal Staff Assistants. For example, type "The Director, Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, shall:"
C2.3.1.8.2.5. Always use "the" when referring to "DoD Components."

C2.3.2. Sources of English Usage. Use the following order of authority when you have questions about punctuation, capitalization, spelling, numerals, compound words, etc.:

C2.3.2.1. "List of Preferred Terms Used in DoD Issuances." See appendix 2.

C2.3.2.2. "List of Hyphenated Unit Modifiers Used in DoD Issuances." See appendix 3.

C2.3.3. Format

C2.3.3.1. Numbering System

C2.3.3.1.1. Always use the DoD Directives System numbering system to identify where you are in the Directive, especially when you are looking at the document on a computer screen. See section C1.6., above.

C2.3.3.1.2. Do not use tabs between section, paragraph, and subparagraph numbers and the text. Use two spaces.

C2.3.3.1.3. Do not use the automated feature to generate section, paragraph, and subparagraph numbers in Microsoft Word.

C2.3.3.1.4. Use the three identifiers in the numbering system of section, paragraph, and subparagraph. See figure C1.F14.

² Copies may be obtained via the Internet at http://www.access.gpo.gov/styleman

³ Copies may be obtained via the Internet at http://www.bkstor.com
C2.3.3.1.5. Indent each paragraph level every other tab, setting the first tab at .25. Do not use more than six tabs (no lower than the fifth subparagraph level).

C2.3.3.1.6. Implied Section. When there is no section heading, use an implied section concept. The paragraph number always starts at the second level of the numbering system regardless of whether or not you have a section heading.

C2.3.3.1.7. Enclosure Numbering. Apply the same numbering structure when identifying sections, paragraphs, or subparagraphs in an enclosure. Place an E, showing that the information is in an enclosure, followed by the enclosure number, in front of the identifier. For example, when numbering an area in enclosure 1, place "E1." before the identifier.

C2.3.3.1.8. Attachment Numbering. Use the same numbering structure when identifying sections, paragraphs, or subparagraphs in an attachment to an enclosure. Place an E and the enclosure number plus an "A," showing that the information is in an attachment to an enclosure, followed by the attachment number, in front of the identifier. For example, when numbering an area in attachment 1 to enclosure 1 place "E1.A1." before the identifier. See figure C2.F11., above.

C2.3.3.2.1. Center the page number 1/2 inch from the bottom of the page, beginning with page 1.

C2.3.3.2.2. Number the pages consecutively with Arabic numerals from page 1 through the end of the document.

C2.3.3.3. Underlining

C2.3.3.3.1. Underline headings of sections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, enclosures, attachments, figures, and tables in DoD Directives. Do not underline to show emphasis. Use CAPITAL letters to show emphasis.
C2.3.3.2. Underline definitions and their abbreviations or acronyms (but not the meanings) in the DEFINITIONS section or enclosure 2 (when the list of definitions exceeds a half page).

C2.3.3.3. Underline the titles of key officials in the RESPONSIBILITIES section (but not the word "The" that precedes titles). See subparagraph C2.3.1.1.8.2.4.a above.

C2.3.3.4. Bold Type and Italics. Do not use bold type for emphasis in DoD Directives. Use CAPITAL letters to emphasize a word or words in the text of Directives. You may use red italics in DoD Directives to indicate changes to the issuance. Otherwise, do not use italics.

C2.3.3.5. Bullets and Dashes. Do NOT use bullets and dashes in DoD Directives. All material shall have text or numbered identification.

C2.3.3.6. Figures, Forms, Graphics, and Tables. Do not use figures, forms, graphics, or tables in the text of a DoD Directive.

C2.3.3.7. Footnotes and Notes. Use footnotes to indicate where the reader may obtain the document, if it is not readily available through the DoD Directives System. Place an Arabic superscript immediately after the material you are footnoting with no intervening space. Define the footnote at the bottom of the page. Do not use the term "NOTE:" in DoD Directives.

C2.3.3.8. Editing Symbols. Editing symbols are identified in appendix 4.

C2.3.3.9. Change Bars. Use change bars in the margins of pages to identify changes on each line in DoD Directives.

C2.3.3.10. Companion DoD Instruction and/or Publication. When there is a companion DoD Instruction and/or Publication being processed during the same time as the DoD Directive, the Directive MUST be signed first. The DoD Instruction and/or Publication shall be held until AFTER the DoD Directive has been signed.

1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive:

1.1. Reissues reference (a) to update DoD policy and responsibilities for implementing references (b) and (c).

1.2. Provides for administering the facilities and unit stationing programs of the National Guard (the Army and the Air) and the Reserves (the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps) (hereafter referred to collectively as "the Reserve components").

1.3. Continues a Joint Service Reserve Component Facility Board (JSRCFB) in each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the U.S. possessions and territories.
1.4. Provides for placement of Reserve component units of the Military Services in local communities.

2. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE

This Directive:

2.1. Applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard when, by agreement with the Department of Transportation, it is operating as a Military Service of that Department), the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities in the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components"). The term "Military Services," as used herein, refers to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps.

2.2. Does not apply to limiting the rights of Governors of States to fix the location of units of the National Guard in their respective borders, as authorized by 10 U.S.C. 18238 and 32 U.S.C. 104(a) (references (b) and (c)).

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1. Chiefs of the Reserve Components. The Chiefs of the Army, Naval, and Air Force Reserves; the Directors of the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard; and the Commander, Marine Forces Reserve, are hereafter referred to collectively as "chiefs of the Reserve components."

3.2. Joint Facility. A facility intended to be used by both the Active and a Reserve component of a single Armed Force of the United States; or two or more components (whether Active or Reserve components) of the Armed Forces of the United States.

3.3. Joint Service Reserve Component Facility Board (JSRCFB). A group established in each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the U.S. possessions and territories, to meet at a minimum of once every 12 months to promulgate joint use of land and facilities by units of two or more components, to the greatest practicable extent for efficiency and economy. That shall include consideration for the acquisition, by purchase, lease, transfer, construction, expansion, rehabilitation, or conversion of facilities necessary for the proper development, training, operations, and maintenance of the Reserve components.
JSRCFB composition consists of one appointed principal member and one alternate member from each Reserve component that has at least one unit in that State or territory.

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy, subject to the overall national defense needs of the United States and the availability of appropriations, to:

4.1. Provide new and replacement facilities needed to support the missions of the Reserve components in the most economical manner to meet operational and training needs.

4.2. Require the Military Services to participate in a JSRCFB in each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the U.S. possessions and territories in which they have at least one unit to ensure maximum practical joint construction and use for meeting Reserve component facility requirements, in accordance with Sections 18231(1)-18231(2) of reference (b).

4.3. Maximize both joint construction and common-use areas in joint facilities when practical and economically advantageous. In accordance with Section 18233(a)(2) of reference (b), joint facilities include two or more of any of the seven Reserve components, as defined in Section 10101 of reference (b).

4.4. Require the number of Reserve component units located or to be located in a local community to be no larger than the number that reasonably may be expected to be maintained at authorized strength, in accordance with 10 U.S.C. 18234(1) (reference (b)).

4.5. Require that any plan for placement of Reserve component units or facilities in a local community shall ensure the greatest practical joint facility use, in accordance with Section 18234(2) of reference (b).

4.6. Require that the manpower potential of the area be reviewed to determine adequacy for meeting and maintaining authorized or required officer and enlisted strengths. Considered in the review shall be the potential number of persons living in the area that may be qualified for membership in and have job skills required by those Reserve component units.

4.7. Ensure that requirements under paragraphs 4.4. and 4.5., above, and 4.14., below, and DoD Instruction 4000.19 (reference (d)), shall be met before making expenditures for a Reserve component facility, in accordance with Sections 18233-18234 of reference (b).

4.8. Require a Military Department, when formulating a plan for the allocation of a Reserve component unit to a local community, where one of its units did not exist, or when considering an increase in structure or number of existing units, to coordinate proposed locations with the Secretaries of the other Military Departments.

4.9. Execute an agreement that establishes the equities and obligations, therein, between the U.S. Government and each State when a military construction (MILCON) project to be constructed on State-owned land is supported by a Federal contribution.

4.10. Require the Army National Guard JSRCFB member, appointed by the State Adjutant General, to be the Records Custodian for the JSRCFB.

4.11. Require an Active component to provide replacement facilities when it displaces a long term or permanently housed Guard or Reserve unit or activity if the facilities from which the Guard or Reserve unit was displaced are needed by the Reserve component to train for wartime missions. The Active component shall provide replacement facilities consistent with current Reserve component criteria, the unit's training requirements for wartime missions, and authorized strength. Replacement facilities shall be acceptable to the chief of the Reserve component of the unit being displaced and meet authorized space and functional area requirements.

4.12. Require host Active components to coordinate with all affected Reserve components impacted by base realignment and closure (BRAC) actions. That includes the development of plans for MILCON and other relocation actions and expenditures required by BRAC legislation in sufficient detail to support the Active component BRAC financial plan. Reserve components shall identify specific base closure program requirements, to include MILCON and other relocation requirements, to their host Active component.

4.13. Require adequate project scopes and cost estimates for Reserve component MILCON budget submissions.

4.14. Acquire land only when there is a clearly demonstrated need.

4.15. Require the Military Service, through command channels, to consider the advice of all military and civilian agencies concerned with Reserve component facilities, including the JSRCFBs.
4.16. Require the selection of a host Reserve component and establishment of minimum standards for each joint Reserve base and/or installation and/or enclave. A joint Reserve base and/or installation and/or enclave is defined as having more than one Reserve component.

4.17. Require the host Reserve component to ensure that there are no duplicate, nondeployable common service or support organizations on a joint Reserve base. For example, there shall be only one base support office, security force, fire department, fuel farm, facilities repair and maintenance activity, and, where practical, contracting, civilian personnel, transportation activity, and supply and maintenance warehousing. The host may appoint a tenant to direct a common activity consisting of the combined assets of all Services and Reserve components.

4.18. Require the joint Reserve base host Reserve component to conduct any outsourcing or privatization studies in coordination with the tenant components. Tenants, before initiating outsourcing or privatization studies, shall consult with the host Reserve component and other tenants to consolidate efforts.

4.19. Require an Inter-Service Support Agreement, Memorandum of Understanding, or Memorandum of Agreement, as applicable (DoD Instruction 4000.19, reference (d)), between host and tenant organizations on each joint Reserve base and/or installation and/or enclave. That document shall address the following:

4.19.1. Support requirements to include what support shall be provided on a reimbursable basis.

4.19.2. The basis for determining reimbursement amounts, and the billing and payment process.

4.19.3. The minimum standards established by the host Military Service, in accordance with paragraph 4.16., above.

4.19.4. All requirements above the minimum required standards of the host Military Service.

4.19.5. Pooling nondeployable support for maximum efficiencies.

4.19.6. The use of only one base support office, security force, fire department, fuel farm, facilities repair and maintenance activity, and, where practical, contracting, civilian personnel, transportation activity, and supply and maintenance warehousing activity for each joint Reserve base and/or installation and/or enclave, unless a better value is available.

4.19.7. Methods to maximize value and life-cycle cost-effectiveness by privatizing or obtaining from municipalities services such as refuse collection and disposal, sewage treatment, water supply and treatment, fuel storage and supply, utilities, and heating and cooling.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs, under the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, shall:

5.1.1. Be responsible for analyzing and developing policy, and promulgating plans, programs, actions, and taskings for Reserve component facilities and joint Reserve bases and/or installations and/or enclaves consistent with DoD Directive 5125.1 (reference (e)) and shall resolve cases when complete coordination may not be effected under paragraphs 4.5. and 4.19., above.

5.1.2. Ensure that the Military Services properly establish a host Reserve component and provide adequate support to joint Reserve bases and/or installations and/or enclaves.

5.1.3. Review the minutes of each JSRCFB for compliance with this Directive.

5.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall:

5.2.1. Establish plans, programs, budgets, and accounting procedures to support facilities construction and maintenance programs; develop and maintain adequate information systems to effectively manage the use of appropriated funds for supporting approved facility programs; report design and construction progress; and provide required reports on Reserve component facilities.

5.2.2. Provide required facilities based on authorized strength of assigned units, quantity and type of equipment and supplies, and established facilities criteria, according to 10 U.S.C. 18234 (reference (b)).

5.2.3. Require the chiefs of the Reserve components to certify that Reserve component units have been approved for stationing and that unit total on-board strength for proposed Reserve component facilities is adequate to ensure full facility use. It shall be a requirement that the average on-board strength for the previous 3 years be a minimum of 75 percent of the total authorized strength before submission of the budget request to the OSD. The Secretaries of the Military Departments may grant waivers to that requirement.

5.2.4. Execute agreement and contribute Federal funds to the States for National Guard facilities consistent with applicable law and policy.

5.2.5. Issue licenses or permits for the use of Reserve component facilities by others, as authorized in Sections 18235-18236 of reference (b).

5.2.6. Approve operation and maintenance-funded minor construction, and maintenance and repair projects, in accordance with applicable law.

5.2.7. Approve projects using funds specifically identified as "minor construction," in accordance with 10 U.S.C. 2805 and 18233(a) (reference (b)), including all requirements for congressional committee notification.

5.2.8. Provide implementing instructions to, and ensure appointment of, their members to the JSRCFBs.

5.2.9. Coordinate with other Military Departments to ensure that placement of Reserve component units shall not effect adversely the ability of Reserve component units of the other Military Departments to obtain or maintain the manpower necessary for them to achieve satisfactory personnel readiness levels, and to ensure greatest practical use of any facility constructed or improved.

5.2.10. Ensure maximum use, maintenance, and repair of existing facilities, and coordination with other Military Services to determine availability and use of existing facilities and/or joint use of planned facilities.

5.2.11. Request approval of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics, for major land acquisitions. C3. CHAPTER 3

DoD INSTRUCTIONS AND DoD PUBLICATIONS

C3.1. HOW TO PREPARE DoD INSTRUCTIONS

C3.1.1. Organization of DoD Instructions (For samples see figures in Chapter 2)

C3.1.1.1.1. On the first page, place the DoD Instruction number in the upper right corner of the issuance. Below it, type your organization's abbreviation. On each following page, place the Instruction number 1/2 to 3/4 of an inch from the top of the page. Leave room for the full date after the Instruction number on all pages.

C3.1.1.1.2. The Directives Section shall assign a new Instruction a number after the PSA has signed the Instruction.

C3.1.1.1.3. The Directives Section shall place the date on all pages once the Instruction has been signed.

C3.1.1.2. Subject Line (See figure C2.2.)

C3.1.1.2.1. Type the word "SUBJECT" in all caps. Then, state the Instruction topic in no more than three lines and in block style.

C3.1.1.2.2. Write out a full name with the acronym or abbreviation beside it in parentheses.

C3.1.1.2.3. Do not use the exact same subject line for more than one issuance.

C3.1.1.3. References (See figure C2.3.)

C3.1.1.3.1. List references in the order that they appear in the text.

C3.1.1.3.2. Use a maximum of six references on the first page. If there are more than six, place the first four on the first page. See figure C2.3.

C3.1.1.3.3. When a DoD Instruction or Publication contains more than 26 references, use a double lettering system; e.g., aa - az followed by ba - bz, etc. Do NOT use triple letters. See figure C2.3.

C3.1.1.3.4. When you are canceling one issuance with another, place the words "hereby canceled" in parentheses after the date of the document; e.g., DoD

C3.1.1.3.5. When a reissued DoD Instruction continues to authorize a DoD Publication, cite the Publication.

C3.1.1.3.6. Do not cite Military Department or joint-Service publications in DoD Instructions that implement or authorize documents. You may refer to them in the text of DoD Publications.

C3.1.1.3.7. Use a footnote to show readers precisely where to find documents that are not readily available to all users in the DoD Directives System.

C3.1.1.3.8. Do not list unpublished material, such as drafts and documents that usually are not available to readers.

C3.1.1.3.9. Do not list documents that you are in the process of canceling.

C3.1.1.4. Legal Citations

C3.1.1.4.1. Use a DoD issuance as the reference citation when it has implemented an Executive order, public law, or other statute; e.g., use DoD Directive 5400.7, "DoD Freedom of Information Act Program," May 13, 1988.

C3.1.1.4.2. When you are implementing a specific statute that is in the United States Code (U.S.C.), list the U.S.C.; e.g., Section 1175 of title 10, United States Code. You may cite two or more sections; e.g., Sections 10605-10607 of title 42, United States Code.

C3.1.1.4.3. If the statute is not in a part of the U.S.C., use public law citation when it applies; e.g., Public Law 103-139, "Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 1994," November 11, 1993. Do not abbreviate Public Law in the reference section. In the text establish the abbreviation as Public Law (Pub. L.). Verify the proper statutory authority with the Office of the General Counsel, Department of Defense (OGC, DoD), during the drafting phase.

C3.1.1.4.4. Use the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) citation when referencing a document that has been published in the CFR (e.g., Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101.20, "Management of Buildings and Grounds," current edition); if it has not been, use the Federal Register citation.

C3.1.1.4.5. References as Enclosures. Do not include any documents you list in the references section as an enclosure.
C3.1.2. Guidelines for Sections of DoD Instructions. Develop those sections of DoD Instructions, as follows:

C3.1.2.1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE. Give the reason for the DoD Instruction, and identify the following (as shown in figure C2.F5.):

C3.1.2.1.1. State that the Instruction reissues, supersedes, or replaces another one.

C3.1.2.1.2. State that this Instruction authorizes (or, continues to authorize) a DoD Publication.

C3.1.2.1.3. Identify any DoD Executive Agent(s) who receive(s) responsibilities in the Instruction.

C3.1.2.1.4. Identify any boards, panels, etc., which this Instruction establishes.

C3.1.2.2. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE

C3.1.2.2.1. Identify to whom the document applies. Use the standard wording for the applicability section.

C3.1.2.2.2. The scope must be in a separate paragraph or paragraphs in this section.
2. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as “the DoD Components”).

2.1. This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as “the DoD Components”). The term “Military Services,” as used herein, refers to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps.

2.2. This Instruction also applies to the Commissioned Corps of the Public Health and the National Atmospheric Administration, under agreements with the Departments of Health and Human Services and Commerce.

C3.1.2.3. DEFINITIONS (if applicable). See figure C2.F7.

C3.1.2.3.1. Define terms unique to this Instruction.

C3.1.2.3.2. Use Joint Pub 1-02 for military terms. Inform the Directives Section about terms that do not appear in Joint Pub 1-02, but that you feel need to be there.

C3.1.2.3.3. If terms are less than half a page, list them in this section of the Instruction. If the terms are more than half a page, list them in enclosure 2 if the continued reference listing is enclosure 1. If the reference listing is not used as enclosure 1 then identify the definitions section as enclosure 1.

C3.1.2.4. POLICY. DoD Instructions contain brief policy statements that are no more than one and two paragraphs long, which a higher-level document has already authorized.
C3.1.2.5. RESPONSIBILITIES

See figure C2.F9.

C3.1.2.5.1. Identify key officials who shall carry out the policy and procedures that the DoD Instruction identifies.

C3.1.2.5.2. In DoD Instructions, the Principal Staff Assistants (PSAs) assign responsibilities to the Deputy Under or Deputy Assistant Secretaries, the Directors of Defense Agencies, and the Directors of DoD Field Activities. The originating PSA may assign responsibilities to another DoD Component if a DoD Directive authorizes them to do so.

C3.1.2.5.3. When an Instruction assigns responsibilities for an Assistant Secretary of Defense (ASD), name the Under Secretary of Defense (USD) who has authority over them. See figure C2.F9.

C3.1.2.5.4. An originating ASD may not assign responsibilities to a USD who is overseeing them; rather, the USD is responsible for and shall sign the Instruction or Publication.

C3.1.2.6. PROCEDURES. In DoD Instructions, clearly outline procedures step by step, including how the user shall carry out the policy. Be precise and clear so that the DoD Components do not need to use implementing or supplementing documents.

C3.1.2.7. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS (if applicable)

C3.1.2.7.1. In this section, identify forms, formats, reporting requirements or record-keeping systems for information that the Agency needs from the user. Also include statements about canceled information requirements.
C3.1.2.7.2. Refer to DoD Directive 8910.1 (reference (e)) for policies for managing and controlling required information.

C3.1.2.7.3. Use DoD 8910.1-M (reference (f)) for information on how you establish, revise, and cancel information requirements; obtain information from the public, non-DoD Federal Agencies and the DoD Components; and operate reports management programs. Contact the Director of Information Operations and Reports (Dior), WHS, for help with information requirements.

C3.1.2.7.4. Use DoD Instruction 7750.7 (reference (g)) for information on policies for the DoD Forms Management Program. For help with forms, contact Dior, WHS.

C3.1.2.7.5. Use DoD Directive 8320.1 and DoD 8320.1-M (references (h) and (i)) for information on policies and procedures for the DoD Data Elements and Codes Program. Contact the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Command, Control, Communications, and Intelligence, for help with data elements and codes.

6. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

The information requirements prescribed in this Instruction have been assigned Report Control Symbol DD-P&L(A)670 in accordance with DoD 8910.1-M (reference (f)).

C3.1.2.8. EFFECTIVE DATE. Use the phrase, "This Instruction is effective immediately," unless you specify otherwise. See figure C2.F10.

C3.1.2.9. Signature. The PSAs sign DoD Instructions.

C3.1.2.10. Enclosures. Use enclosures for material that you have not identified in the reference listing, but you do mention in the text of the issuance. They should be originals or camera-ready copies. List the enclosures on the signature page. Continued references are enclosure 1, and definitions are enclosure 2. Align the words "Enclosures - 2" flush with the left margin, indenting the list in increments 1/4 of an inch. Identify the enclosures using an "E" before the enclosure number. For example, enclosure 1 is identified using E1. preceding the title of the enclosure.

C3.1.2.11. Attachments To Enclosures. List attachments on the last page of an enclosure in the same manner as listing enclosures at the end of the main body of the Instruction. Attachments should be originals or camera-ready copies. See figure C2.F11.
C3.1.2.12. Use of "See." When "see" is used as directional material at the end of the sentence the phrase should be a stand-alone sentence.

| These procedures shall be implemented. (See paragraph C2.1.1.) |

C3.1.2.13. Companion DoD Instruction and/or Publication. When there is a companion DoD Instruction and/or Publication being processed during the same time as the DoD Directive, the Directive MUST be signed first. The DoD Instruction and/or Publication shall be held until AFTER the DoD Directive has been signed.
SUBJECT: Sizing of Graduate Medical Education (GME) and Program Closure Procedures

References: (a) Title 10, United States Code
(b) DoD Directive 5136.1, "Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs (ASD(HA))," May 27, 1994

1. PURPOSE

This Instruction implements policy, assigns responsibilities and prescribes procedures under references (a) and (b) to close a GME program when a determination is made by the Services that such a program is no longer needed.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1. Graduate Medical Education (GME). Physician education beginning after graduation from medical school and providing clinical and instructional training in general and specialty practice. GME may have as its goal the accomplishment of board certification in a specialty (e.g., pediatrics or orthopedics) or proficiency in an area of operational expertise (e.g., aerospace medicine or tropical medicine).
3.2. Program Director (PD). The physician designated as the "PD." The PD has responsibility for all aspects of physician education in the confines of a specialty program.

3.3. Trainee. The physician participating as a student in the GME program, often referred to as an "intern," "resident," or "fellow," or defined by the year of participation in the program; e.g., "Postgraduate Year 1;" etc.

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy:

4.1. That the total proportion of active duty trainees to the total number of active duty physicians shall reflect requirements for training determined by the Services and validated by the Secretaries of the Military Services.

4.2. That when review of a medical department of a Military Service by the respective Surgeon General indicates that there may be excess physicians in training or excess training capacity, its GME training positions shall be adjusted, accordingly.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs shall:

5.1.1. Monitor implementation of this Instruction and issue such additional direction and guidance as may be necessary.

5.1.2. Authorize exceptions if deemed necessary.

5.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall implement the requirements of this Instruction through the Surgeons General of the Military Departments.

6. PROCEDURES

6.1. The following parameters shall be considered when deciding if a particular program or group of programs shall be maintained, changed, or closed:

6.1.1. The total number of physicians required by the Services in the specialty.
6.1.2. The accreditation status of the program. Strong consideration shall be given to maintaining a recent and fully accredited program over one on probation or facing reaccreditation.

6.1.3. Status of the military treatment facility (MTF) housing the program, such as whether it is scheduled for closing or redesignation as a community hospital or as an outpatient facility.

6.1.4. Relationship with other essential programs at the same facility, such as whether change or closure of the program will affect related or essential programs or whether changes in other programs affect the program. In cases (such as the National Capital Region and San Antonio) where GME programs are operated jointly by multiple facilities, consider also the relationship with programs at the affiliated facilities.

6.1.5. Participation in the program, including the extent to which the program has filled its residency positions every year for the past 4 years.

6.1.6. The cost of the program, including technology and equipment, special services, and ancillary requirements, and an assessment of the impact on the Defense Health Program budget.

6.1.7. Whether the training can be obtained more effectively through means other than the operation of a GME program at the facility.

6.1.8. Whether the MTF's beneficiary population provides the necessary clinical case mix to support the training program.

6.1.9. Impact on patient care at the MTF, including, where applicable, care under the "Specialized Treatment Services" or "Center of Excellence" programs.

6.1.10. Impact on readiness (both individual command and overall for the Service).

6.1.11. Impact on current trainees and provision for the completion of training for those trainees who shall be affected by a change in the program.

6.2. When an assessment using the parameters of section 6.1. indicates the appropriateness of closure of a GME program, the Military Department shall take the following steps:
6.2.1. The parent Service must coordinate with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs (ASD(HA)) and the TRICARE lead agent, including submission of a written summary of the assessment made.

6.2.2. The parent Service shall undertake a dialogue with the local community, the line commanders, and local legislators to ensure that they are fully informed of the plans and understand the need and rational for program closure.

6.2.3. The parent Service shall submit a plan for media management during and after announcement of program closure.

6.2.4. After coordination with the ASD(HA), the parent Service shall notify the Accreditation Council on GME, the PD, and the trainees of the action.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Instruction is effective immediately.

C3.2.2. Organization of DoD Publications. Prepare DoD Publications, as follows. See figure C3.F7.

C3.2.2.1. Cover. See figure C3.F8.

C3.2.2.1.1. The originating OSD Component designs the cover.

C3.2.2.1.2. Insert the following information:

C3.2.2.1.2.1. The DoD seal.

C3.2.2.1.2.2. The DoD Publication number (in the upper right corner). A DoD Publication carries the prefix "DoD" followed by its authorizing Directive or Instruction number, then a dash, and, finally, the capital letter identifying the type of DoD Publication; e.g., "DoD 5025.1-M." When you need to issue a Publication that has no authorizing issuance, an existing Directive or Instruction shall be changed to authorize it.

C3.2.2.1.2.3. A brief title in 10 words or less. Do not use the same title as the DoD Directive or Instruction that authorizes it.

C3.2.2.1.2.4. The date (month and year) the DoD Publication is signed.

C3.2.2.1.2.5. The name of the responsible OSD Component centered at the bottom of the cover.

C3.2.2.1.2.5.1. Use the title of the PSA signing the foreword on the cover.

C3.2.2.1.2.5.2. If a designated Deputy Under Secretary or Deputy Assistant Secretary signs the foreword, use the name of the Office of the PSA; e.g., Office of the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs.

C3.2.2.1.2.5.3. If officials from different organizations sign the foreword, the names of their organizations shall appear on the cover.

C3.2.2.2. Front Matter. Use this to introduce the main parts of a DoD Publication. Type the Publication number on the first line in the upper right corner, 1/2 inch from the top of the page, with the date that is on the cover directly beside it (e.g., DoD 5025.1-M, October 2001). Insert both on each page beginning with the front matter throughout the Publication. Number the pages consecutively throughout the Publication, beginning with page two, the Foreword.

C3.2.2.2.1. Foreword. The PSAs or the designated Deputy Under Secretary or Deputy Assistant Secretary shall prepare the foreword on letterhead, and date (with month, day, and year) and sign it. (See figure C3.F9.) The cover shall have the same month and year as the foreword. (See figure C3.F8.) Use plain bond if officials from different organizations sign the foreword. In the foreword, you shall:

C3.2.2.2.1.1. Identify the authorizing DoD Directive; or

C3.2.2.2.1.2. Include a cancellation statement if the DoD Publication reissues or incorporates other material, such as a DoD Instruction, or supersedes other documents. DoD Publications may not cancel or imply that they are canceling a DoD Directive. A DoD Publication may cancel and replace a DoD Instruction if the PSA who is responsible for the DoD Instruction signs the foreword.

C3.2.2.2.1.3. Include an effective date.
C3.2.2.2.1.4. Identify a mailing address where users may send comments or recommended changes.

C3.2.2.2.1.5. Identify the Internet address where the DoD Publication is available. Also identify secondary distribution of the Publication, such as the Defense Technical Information Center or National Technical Information Service (when applicable). (See section C3.3., below, and chapter 6).

FOREWORD

This Manual is issued under the authority of DoD Directive 1234.5, “Example of a DoD Publication,” October 15, 2001. It prescribes the procedures on how to use an example.

DoD 1234.5-M, “Sample of a DoD Publication Foreword,” October 1, 1998, is hereby canceled.

This Manual applies to the the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as “the DoD Components”).

This Manual is effective immediately and is mandatory for use by all the DoD Components.

Send recommended changes to this Manual to the following address:

Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense
(Command, Control, Communications, and Intelligence)
Office of Examples and Format, Room 7F345
9999 Defense Pentagon
Washington, DC 20301-9999

C3.2.2.2.2. Table of Contents. List the title and beginning page number of each part of the Publication. The table of contents shall not include title headings below the section level (unless there is no section level; in such case go no lower than the first main paragraph level). See figure C3.F10.
C3.2.2.2.3. Figures (if applicable). List the titles of diagrams and illustrations that appear in the Publication on the figure page and their page number. See figure C3.F10.

C3.2.2.2.4. Tables (if applicable). List the titles and page numbers for tables on the table page. See figure C3.F10.
C3.2.2.2.5. References. List all documents and correspondence that you cited in the text in the order in which it is used. When you are canceling one issuance with another, place the words "hereby canceled" in parentheses after the date of the document; e.g., DoD Directive 3990.1, "Verification of Logistical Support," April 1, 1998 (hereby canceled). A DoD Publication is authorized to cancel a DoD Instruction or another DoD Publication. It is not authorized to cancel a DoD Directive.

C3.2.2.2.5.1. Do not cite Military Department or joint-Service publications in DoD Publications. If they implement a DoD issuance you may refer to them in the text of DoD Publications.

C3.2.2.2.5.2. Use a footnote to show readers precisely where they may find documents that are not readily available to all users in the DoD Directives System.

C3.2.2.2.5.3. Do not list unpublished material, such as drafts and documents that usually are not available to readers.

C3.2.2.2.5.4. Do not list documents that you are in the process of canceling.

C3.2.2.2.6. Definitions (if applicable). List terms appearing in the DoD Publication with their meanings in alphabetical order. When 1 page or less, include in the front matter. When more than 1 page, include as an enclosure. For specific guidelines, see subparagraph C2.1.5.3., above, and figure C3.F10.

C3.2.2.2.7. Abbreviations and/or Acronyms (if applicable). When the Publication has a large number of abbreviations and/or acronyms, create an alphabetical list that identifies them. See figure C3.F10.

C3.2.2.2.8. Legal Citations

C3.2.2.2.8.1. Use a DoD issuance as the reference citation when it has implemented an Executive order, public law, or other statute; e.g., use DoD Directive 5400.7, "DoD Freedom of Information Act Program," May 13, 1998.

C3.2.2.2.8.2. When you are implementing a specific statute that is in the United States Code (U.S.C.), list the U.S.C. Two or more sections of a title in the U.S.C. may be used as one reference; e.g., "Sections 10605-10607 of title 42, United States Code."

C3.2.2.2.8.3. If the statute is not in a part of the U.S.C., use public law citation when it is applicable; e.g., "Public Law 103-139, 'Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 1994,' November 11, 1993." Verify the proper statutory authority. with the Office of the General Counsel, Department of Defense (OGC, DoD), during the drafting phase.

C3.2.2.8.4. Use the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) citation when referencing a document that has been published in the CFR (e.g., Title 41, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101.20, "Management of Buildings and Grounds," current edition); if it has not been finalized, use the Federal Register citation.

C3.2.2.9. Introduction (if applicable). You may include an introduction in the front matter if similar information does not appear in the foreword or the main body of the text. Include any introductory information within the first main body of the Publication (e.g., chapter, section, or part) rather than a separate entity in the front matter.

C3.2.2.10. Preface. Use a foreword instead of a preface.

C3.2.2.11. Acknowledgments. Do not include acknowledgments.

C3.2.2.12. Copyright Material. Only use copyright material with the copyright owner's written consent. You shall provide a copy of this to the Directives Section before they may publish the DoD Publication.

C3.2.2.13. Disclaimers. Do not use disclaimers.

C3.2.2.3. Main Body. Divide this part into chapters followed by sections, each with subject headings. You may divide sections into paragraphs and subparagraphs.

C3.2.2.4. Back Matter

C3.2.2.4.1. Appendices. List appendices at the end of the table of contents. See figure C3.F10.

C3.2.2.4.2. Bibliographies. Only use bibliographies when you need to refer users to documents for additional reading. Do not refer to bibliographic entries in the text or list them as cited references. Do not include bibliographies as appendices.

C3.2.2.4.3. Index. Use an index to list key words in a DoD Publication with references to their section, paragraph or subparagraph number. Include the heading, subheadings, cross-references, and their section, paragraph or subparagraph numbers in each index entry. Identify the index at the end of the table of contents.

C3.3. STYLE AND FORMAT

C3.3.1. Writing Style
C3.3.1.1. Write DoD Instructions and Publications clearly and concisely. Organize their contents to address what the readers know, what they do not know, what they shall do with the information, and the results they expect to gain. Apply the following general principles and grammar:

C3.3.1.1.1. Use short simple words and limit sentences to one thought. Keep sentences brief (average of 20 or fewer words).

C3.3.1.1.2. Use parallel construction (the same grammatical structure for similar or related ideas).

C3.3.1.1.3. Write in the active voice (name an actor with the action immediately after) because it is more direct and forceful; e.g., "The Chair shall forward one information copy of the board meeting minutes to the members."

C3.3.1.1.4. When possible, use paragraph headings to highlight important concepts so the reader may see at a glance what the paragraph is about. Avoid long, rambling, and disjointed paragraphs, especially those with many subparagraphs.

C3.3.1.1.5. Helping Verbs. Use a helping verb to express the degree of obligation, as shown below in table C3.T1.

Table C3.T1. Use of Helping Verbs in DoD Instructions and Publications

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Helping Verb</th>
<th>Degree of Restriction</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Shall</td>
<td>Action is mandatory.</td>

<tr>

</table>

C3.3.1.1.6. Gender-Specific Language. Use the phrase "he and she," rather than writing "he" or "she" separately as generic pronouns. See appendix 2.

C3.3.1.1.7. Personal Pronouns. Do not use the personal pronouns "I" and "me."

C3.3.1.1.8. Abbreviations and Acronyms

C3.3.1.1.8.1. Use an abbreviation or acronym in parentheses after a term first appears, but only if you use it more than once. Generally, do not use the articles "the," "a," and "an" before abbreviations and acronyms; e.g., write "OSD" and "MARS," not "the OSD" and "a MARS" when used as a unit modifier or adjective.

C3.3.1.1.8.2. Exceptions to subparagraph C3.3.1.1.8.1. above:
C3.3.1.8.2.1. Department of Defense and United States. When using these terms as adjectives, write the abbreviations without parentheses. When using them as nouns, spell them out and omit the abbreviations. For example, "It is DoD policy to rely on the assistance of civilian employees within the Department of Defense. This policy has been implemented throughout the United States."

C3.3.1.8.2.2. Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Joint Chiefs of Staff, or Joint Staff. Always use "The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff" in DoD Instructions and Publications.

C3.3.1.8.2.3. OSD Principal Staff Assistants. Identify those OSD officials who are Presidential appointments, Assistants to the Secretary of Defense, and OSD Directors or equivalents who report directly to the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense.

C3.3.1.8.2.4. In the RESPONSIBILITIES section, spell out the title of a key official without using the abbreviation.

C3.3.1.8.2.5. Always use "the" when referring to "DoD Components."

C3.3.2. Sources of English Usage. Use the following order of authority when you have questions about punctuation, capitalization, spelling, numerals, and compound words, etc.:

C3.3.2.1. "List of Preferred Terms Used in DoD issuances." See appendix 2.

C3.3.2.2. "List of Hyphenated Unit Modifiers Used in DoD Issuances." See appendix 3.

C3.3.2.3. United States Government Printing Office Style Manual and Word Division Supplement to that Manual (current editions).

C3.3.2.4. Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary (current edition).

C3.3.2.5. The Chicago Manual of Style.

C3.3.3.1. Numbering System

C3.3.3.1.1. Always use the DoD Directives System numbering system to identify where you are in the DoD Instruction or Publication, especially when you are looking at the document on a computer screen. See figure C3.F11.

C3.3.3.1.2. Do not use tabs between section, paragraph, and subparagraph numbers and the text. Use two spaces.

C3.3.3.1.3. Do not use the automated feature to generate section, paragraph, and subparagraph numbers in Microsoft Word.

C3.3.3.1.4. Use the three identifiers in the numbering system of section, paragraph, and subparagraph shown in figure C3.F11., below.

<table>
<thead>

</tbody>
</table>

C3.3.3.1.5. Indent each paragraph level every other tab, setting the first tab at .25. Do not use more than six tabs (no lower than the fifth subparagraph level).

C3.3.3.1.6. Implied Section. When there is no section heading, use an implied section concept. The paragraph number always starts at the second level of the numbering system regardless of whether or not you have a section heading.

C3.3.3.1.7. Enclosure Numbering. In Publications, apply the same numbering structure when identifying sections, paragraphs, or subparagraphs in an enclosure. Place an E, showing that the information is in an enclosure, followed by the enclosure number, in front of the identifier. For example, when numbering an area in enclosure 1 place "E1." before the identifier.

C3.3.3.1.8. Appendix Numbering. In DoD Publications, apply the same numbering structure when identifying sections, paragraphs, or subparagraphs in an appendix. Place an AP, showing that the information is in an appendix, followed by the appendix number, in front of the identifier. For example, when numbering an area in appendix 2, place "AP2." before the identifier.

C3.3.3.1.9. Attachment Numbering. Use the same numbering structure when identifying sections, paragraphs, or subparagraphs in an attachment to an enclosure or an appendix. Place an E and the enclosure number, or an AP and the appendix number, plus an A, showing that the information is in an attachment to an enclosure or an appendix, followed by the attachment number, in front of the identifier. For example, when numbering an area in attachment 1 to enclosure 1, place "E1.A1." before the identifier, or when numbering an area in attachment 1 to appendix 1, place "AP1.A1." before the identifier. See figure C2.F11., above for a sample attachment numbering.

C3.3.3.1.10. Figure and Table Numbering. The same rules apply for figures and tables. For figures an "F" is used. For tables a "T" is used. See figure C3.F10., above for examples of figure and table numbering in a table of contents.

C3.3.3.2.1. Center the page number 1/2 inch from the bottom of the page, beginning with page 1. For DoD Publications, the cover is numbered as page 1.

C3.3.3.2.2. Number the pages consecutively with Arabic numerals from page one through the end of the document.

C3.3.3.3. Underlining

C3.3.3.3.1. Underline headings of chapters, sections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, enclosures, figures, tables, and attachments in DoD Instructions and Publications. Do not underline to show emphasis. Use all capital letters to show emphasis.

C3.3.3.3.2. Underline definitions and their abbreviations or acronyms (but not the meanings).

C3.3.3.3.3. Underline the titles of key officials in the RESPONSIBILITIES section (but not the word "The" that precedes titles or the abbreviation that follows).

C3.3.3.4. Bold Type and Italics. Do not use bold type for emphasis in DoD Instructions and DoD Publications. Use CAPITAL letters to emphasize a word or words in the text of Instructions and Publications. You may use red italics in DoD Instructions and Publications to indicate changes to the issuance. Otherwise, do not use italics.

C3.3.3.5. Bullets and Dashes. Do NOT use bullets and dashes in DoD Instructions and Publications.
C3.3.3.6. Figures, Graphics, and Tables. When figures, graphics, or tables are used:

C3.3.3.6.1. Place small figures, graphics, or tables on the same page close to the text they support. If a large figures, graphics, or tables are used in the issuance, place them on self-contained pages.

C3.3.3.6.2. Label, number as a figure or table, and refer to the figures and tables in the text. See subparagraph C3.3.3.1.10.

C3.3.3.6.3. Photographs, other graphics, and artwork for DoD Instructions and Publications shall be submitted with the final DoD Instruction or Publication for publishing. Photographs smaller than 8 1/2- by 11-inches shall be affixed to pages as page layouts.

C3.3.3.7. Forms. Camera-ready copies of DD and SD forms and good quality copies of other forms shall be submitted for publishing. Camera-ready copies of DD and SD forms are available from the DIOR, WHS. When a form is used as a graphic illustration, fill it out as an example to show how it shall be used. Use the most recent edition of the form.

C3.3.3.8. Footnotes and Notes. Use footnotes to indicate where the reader may obtain the document, if it is not readily available through the DoD Directives System. Place an Arabic superscript immediately after the material you are footnoting with no intervening space. Define the footnote at the bottom of the page. See subparagraph C3.3.2.3., above, for an example. Do not use the term "NOTE:" in DoD Instructions and Publications.

C3.3.3.9. Editing Symbols. Editing symbols are identified in appendix 4.

C3.3.3.10. Change Bars. Use change bars in the margins of pages to identify changes on each line in DoD Instructions and Publications.
C4.1. CHANGES TO DoD ISSUANCES

C4.1.1. A change amends an existing DoD issuance. A published change implies that the entire issuance is current as of the date of the change. After five published changes, the DoD issuance shall be reissued. Interim changes or letter and memorandum notices of changes are not authorized for DoD issuances.

C4.1.2. Types of Changes

C4.1.2.1. Substantive Change. Amends an essential portion of a DoD Directive, Instruction, or Publication, such as policy, applicability, responsibilities, purpose, procedures, information requirements, and implementation.

C4.1.2.1.1. The Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense signs the original DoD Directive; therefore, either shall approve a substantive change to it. See figure C4.F1. The PSA, or designated Deputy, signs the DoD Instruction and approves substantive changes. See figure C4.F2. The PSA or designated Deputy signs the foreword of the DoD Publication and approves the substantive changes. See figure C4.F3.

C4.1.2.1.2. Substantive changes shall be coordinated and forwarded for approval in the same way as an original DoD issuance. See section C5.1. of Chapter 5, below.

C4.1.2.2. Administrative Change. Amends non-substantive portions of a DoD Directive, Instruction, or Publication, such as dates of references and organizational symbols.

C4.1.2.2.1. If an administrative change needs to be made because of an Executive, legislative, or secretarial requirement, it shall be coordinated with the GC, DoD.

C4.1.2.2.2. The PSA or Principal Deputy shall sign a memorandum for the Director, WHS, requesting that the amended text of a DoD issuance be issued. The memorandum shall state that the changes are administrative. The memorandum also shall state that the changes are incorporated into the attached DoD issuance. See figures C4.F4, and C4.F5.

C4.1.3. DoD Executive Agents. DoD Executive agents who are responsible for maintaining and updating DoD Publications shall comply with this chapter. Interim changes or letter and memorandum notices of changes are not authorized for DoD Publications.

C4.1.4. How to Make Changes

C4.1.4.1. On the first page of a DoD Directive or Instruction, above the organizational symbol in the upper right corner, or on the cover of a DoD Publication, above the organizational title, type "Administrative Reissuance Incorporating Change __". In the footer, flush with the left margin, type "Change __, (date)." The Directives Section established the category "Administrative Reissuance" to indicate when changes have been incorporated into the original DoD issuance. Also the category "Administrative Reissuance" indicates that less than 50 percent of the original issuance has changed, and a new date and signature are not required. The word "Administrative" in the category "Administrative Reissuance" does NOT indicate that the changes are administrative in nature.

C4.1.4.2. The changed DoD issuance shall carry its original approval date and signature block. The change number and date shall be placed on the changed issuance, as specified in subparagraph C4.1.4.1., above. The Directives Section shall incorporate the change number and date that the designated officials have approved the change. The Directives Section shall also incorporate the original signature block into the changed issuance.

C4.1.4.3. Action officers shall insert changed information into the existing DoD issuance using the editing tools in their wordprocessing program.

C4.1.4.4. Changed information shall appear in red italics.

C4.1.4.5. Changed and removed information shall be indicated with marginal change bars.

C4.1.4.6. Deleted information shall be indicated with a strike through during the coordination process. Once the issuance has been finalized and processed for web publishing, users shall only see a change bar where information has been deleted.

C4.1.4.7. The changed issuance shall be forwarded for coordination and processing. The SD Form 106 shall be used to coordinate substantive changes. A memorandum for the Director, WHS, signed by the PSA or Principal Deputy, is used to coordinate administrative changes.

C4.2. REISSUANCES

C4.2.1. A reissuance is done when 50 percent or more of a DoD issuance needs to be changed. See figure C4.F6.
C4.2.2. When the reissuance results from administrative or substantive changes, it shall be coordinated in the same way, as prescribed in section C5.1. of Chapter 5, below, and signed.

C4.2.3. When the reissuance results from administrative changes to a DoD Directive, the reissuance and a Cover Memorandum for the Deputy Secretary of Defense shall be prepared by the originating OSD Component. The Cover Memorandum shall recommend signature on the reissuance, state that the changes to the Directive are administrative in nature, and list the GC, DoD, as a coordinator. See figure C4.F4. For a DoD Instruction, the PSA or Principal Deputy must sign the reissuance and a Memorandum for the Director, WHS. The memorandum shall indicate that the changes to the DoD Instruction are administrative in nature and, if necessary, contain the coordination of the GC, DoD. See figure C4.F5.

C4.3. CANCELLATIONS

C4.3.1. The Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense signs the original DoD Directive; therefore, either shall approve its cancellation. The PSA signs the DoD Instruction and Publication and shall approve their cancellations.

C4.3.2. Since coordination is necessary to cancel a DoD issuance, follow the guidance in section C5.1. of Chapter 5, below. The Cover Memorandum for the Deputy Secretary of Defense to cancel a DoD Directive (figure C4.F6.) or the Memorandum for Director, WHS, to cancel a DoD Instruction or Publication (figure C4.F7.) shall contain the following information:

C4.3.2.1. The reason for the cancellation.

C4.3.2.2. The results of the coordination.

C4.3.2.3. For a classified DoD issuance, downgrading instructions or a statement that the issuance shall continue to be handled according to the original security classification level. Provide the Directives Section with a distribution list and mailing address labels for notifying holder of the issuance. See section C6.3. Chapter 6. below.

C4.3.2.4. A specific cancellation statement for a DoD Publication authorized by the DoD Directive or Instruction to be canceled. If the DoD Publication is to remain in effect, the following applies:

C4.3.2.4.1. Include a statement to change an existing DoD Directive or Instruction in the same subject area, adding language that authorizes the continued life of the Publication and redesignates the Publication number to reflect the new authorizing DoD Directive or Instruction; or C4.3.2.4.2. Include a statement indicating that a new DoD Directive or Instruction authorizing the DoD Publication shall be issued in 120 days or that an existing DoD Directive or Instruction shall be amended authorizing the DoD Publication within 60 days.

C4.3.2.5. A cancellation statement for Report Control Symbols and any forms in the DoD Directive or Instruction to be canceled.

C4.3.3. The Director, C&D shall issue cancellation notices, using SD Forms 106-1 and 106-2 after the cancellation has been approved.

C4.4. CLASSIFIED DoD ISSUANCES

C4.4.1. As prescribed by DoD 5200.1-R and DoD 5200.1-PH (references (j) and (k)) classified DoD issuances shall follow these procedures:

C4.4.1.1. An abbreviated security classification of the DoD issuance shall precede the DoD issuance number (i.e., DoD Directive C-1234.5).

C4.4.1.2. The abbreviated security classification of the title is indicated in parentheses after the subject or title. When the subject or title is unclassified, place "(U)" at the end of it; if classified, use the applicable security classification symbol.

C4.4.1.3. The security classification is indicated for each section, paragraph, and subparagraph throughout the text.

C4.4.1.4. The security classification markings at the top and bottom of each page indicating the highest security classification of the page, except page 1, which shall reflect the highest security classification used in the entire issuance. Use adhesive security classification labels or large type in capital letters, but do not stamp the security classification markings. You may indicate security markings in the header and footer of the DoD issuance.

C4.4.1.5. Annotate warning notices and restrictive markings, if necessary.

C4.4.1.6. Annotate the "Classified By" line and declassification and downgrading instructions at the bottom of the FIRST page of the issuance.

C4.4.2. For distribution of classified DoD issuances, see C6.3 of Chapter 6, below.

C5. COORDINATION

DoD issuances (or reissuances) shall be forwarded to the Heads of the DoD Components, who have mutual or related responsibilities for review and concurrence or comments. A substantive reissuance that revises essential portions of a DoD Directive, Instruction, or Publication, such as policy, applicability, responsibilities, purpose, procedure, and information requirements shall be coordinated. An administrative reissuance that revises non-substantive portions of a DoD issuance, such as dates of references and organizational symbols, is not coordinated. If an administrative reissuance is done to comply with Executive, Legislative, or Secretarial requirements, or if the reissuance is a DoD Directive, it shall be coordinated with the GC, DoD.

C5.1.1. SD Form 106, "DoD Directives System Coordination Record"

C5.1.1.1. The SD Form 106 shall be used for coordination of DoD issuances. A separate SD Form 106 shall be used for each DoD issuance. See figure C5.F1. The SD Form 106 shall be used to forward draft DoD issuances to the DoD Components for coordination. Paper copies may be obtained from the OSD Publications Counter. The electronic version may be obtained at http://web1.whs.osd.mil/icdhome/SDEFORMS.HTM. A coordination suspense date of 30 working days (minimum) shall be established, unless statutory or Secretarial requirements dictate an earlier suspense.

C5.1.1.2. The SD Form 106 shall be filled out completely and signed by the PSA or the Principal Deputy.

C5.1.1.3. Copy Requirements

C5.1.1.3.1. The action officer shall provide four copies of the DoD issuance and SD Forms 106 to the Directives Section for mandatory coordination by the DA&M, OSD. Additionally, one virus-free 3.5-inch diskette of the DoD issuance in MS-Word 97 (or higher) or in ASCII format shall be provided.

C5.1.1.3.2. The action officer shall provide one copy of the draft issuance and SD Form 106 to other intended coordinators.

C5.1.1.4. Concurrence and/or Comments. Signature on the SD Form 106 indicates concurrence on the DoD issuance as written. The DoD Components shall forward a memorandum when there are comments on the DoD issuance.
C5.1.2. Mandatory Coordinations. All DoD issuances and substantive reissuances shall be coordinated with the DA&M, the OSD; the GC, DoD; and the IG, DoD.

C5.1.3. DoD Directive. DoD Directives shall be coordinated at the highest level. The following paragraphs identify the level of coordination for DoD Directives:

C5.1.3.1. OSD Components. OSD coordinating officials shall be at the level of PSA or Principal Deputy. If an ASD is under the oversight authority of a USD, the USD may solicit comments from the ASD and include such comments in the USD coordination.

C5.1.3.2. Military Departments. Coordination shall be at the level of Assistant Secretary or Principal Secretariat officials.

C5.1.3.3. Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Coordination for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall be at the level of the Director or the Vice Director, Joint Staff.

C5.1.3.4. Combatant Commands. Coordination by the Commanders of the Combatant Commands shall be included in the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff coordination.

C5.1.3.5. Defense Agencies. If a Director of a Defense Agency is under the oversight authority of a PSA, the PSA may solicit comments from the Director and include such comments in the PSA coordination. The Directors of the NSA and the CIO shall be coordinating officials.

C5.1.4. DoD Instructions or DoD Publications. DoD Instructions shall be coordinated with the Heads of the DoD Components who have mutual or related responsibilities. Coordination is encouraged at the same coordinating level for DoD Directives. The PSA who authorizes the staffing of a DoD Instruction or Publication may accept coordination from officials at the Deputy Under Secretary, Deputy Assistant Secretary, or equivalent level, who coordinate on subjects in their areas of expertise and responsibility.

C5.1.5. Recoordination. Coordinations 6 months old or older shall be recoordinated. When circumstances prevent recoordination, the reason for the delay shall be stated in the cover memorandum. When there is a new PSA since coordination took place, recoordination of the DoD Directive, Instruction, or Publication with new PSA is required.

C5.1.6. Assumed Concurrence. When efforts have failed to obtain a response on a DoD Directive from a DoD Component, the problem shall be addressed in the action memorandum.
C5.1.7. Non-concurrence. A non-concurrence shall be resolved by a second coordination with the particular DoD Component concerned. Unresolved non-concurrences shall be addressed in the action memorandum.

C5.1.8. Split DoD Issuance. When it is necessary to divide a DoD issuance into two separate DoD issuances after coordination has been obtained the following rules apply:

C5.1.8.1. When the original DoD issuance was a DoD Directive, no additional coordination is required (assuming the applicable signature level was obtained).

C5.1.8.2. When the original DoD issuance was a DoD Instruction, additional coordination is required.

C5.1.8.3. Explain in the action memorandum the reason for the division; e.g., that the division was necessary to comply with DoD policy in this Manual on the size and nature of DoD issuances or on the recommendation of the GC, DoD. The original signed coordination shall be used for the DoD Directive. Copies of the coordination shall be used for the DoD Instruction and/or Publication.

C5.1.9. Administrative Coordination

C5.1.9.1. When an administrative reissuance is made to comply with Executive, Legislative, or Secretarial requirement, coordination is required.

C5.1.9.2. When an administrative reissuance is made to revise non-substantive portions such as dates, references, organizational symbols, etc., no coordination is required.

C5.1.10. Unions Granted National Consultation Rights. DoD issuances that have substantive changes in conditions of employment, including personnel policies and practices and other nonpersonnel matters that affect DoD civil service and non-appropriated fund civilian employees will be forwarded to the unions for comment. Assistance in this coordination requirement may be obtained from the Office of Civilian Personnel Policy and Equal Opportunity, Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness.

C5.2. SUBMISSION OF FINAL ISSUANCE FOR SIGNATURE

C5.2.1. The originating OSD Component shall prepare and proofread the final, single-spaced issuance.

C5.2.2. The originating OSD Component shall assemble the issuance in a final package (original set and one copy) composed of the following documents and as listed in subparagraph C5.2.2.1.1.2.
C5.2.2.1. Action Memorandum

C5.2.2.1.1. General Guidelines. The Principal Staff Assistant shall sign the action memorandum.

C5.2.2.1.1.1. Format

C5.2.2.1.1.1.1. Submit on letterhead.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.2. Limit to one page, unless issue is complex and requires greater explanation.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.3. Use short, concise and clear bullet statements

C5.2.2.1.1.1.4. Font: Times New Roman, 12 pitch.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.5. Use 1.5 spaces between bullets.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.6. Number pages bottom center.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.7. Do not staple or use clam clips to ASSEMBLE.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.8. Address memorandums to either the Secretary or Deputy Secretary (DoD Directives); do not route through the Deputy to the Secretary. Address memorandums to the Director, Washington Headquarters Services (Instructions or DoD Publications).

C5.2.2.1.1.1.9. If an action memorandum is addressed to the Secretary, the Executive Secretary will determine whether it will be provided to the Deputy Secretary by initialing the appropriate block on the memo.

C5.2.2.1.1.1.10. An acronym may be used after it is spelled out.

C5.2.2.1.1.2. Preparation

memorandum plural, "memorandums."
military Do not say "military and naval." The term "military" includes "naval."
Military Departments capitalized the term includes the Reserve components, which include the National Guards
Military Secretaries When referring to the Secretaries of the three Military Departments and the Secretary of Transportation (on the U.S. Coast Guard when it is not operating as a Service in the Navy), say the "Secretary concerned." When referring only to the Secretaries of the three Military Departments, say "the Secretary of the Military Department concerned," "the Secretary of each Military Department," or "the Secretaries of the Military Departments." Do not say "the Secretaries of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force," or "the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Air Force."
Military Services The branches of the Armed Forces of the United States, established by act of Congress, in which persons are appointed, enlisted, or inducted for military service and which operates and is administered within a Military or Executive Department. The Military Services are the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard. The term "Military Services" includes the Reserve components, which include the National Guards.

National Guard  Special care must be taken with the National Guard. The State organizations, which are the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard, must be distinguished from their Federal counterparts, which are the Army National Guard of the United States and the Air National Guard of the United States. Taken together, the former make up the "National Guard." The latter, however, cannot be lumped together because the Army National Guard of the United States is a component of the Army, whereas the Air National Guard of the United States is a component of the Air Force—both separate Armed Forces. The National Guard, together with the Navy Militia, make up the organized militia of the 50 States that have been federally recognized. When members of the National Guard enter active service, they are "called into Federal service." Once on duty, they are "in Federal service."

Navy and Marine Corps Although they are in the same Military Department, and under the same Secretary, the Navy and the Marine Corps are separate Armed Forces Therefore the term
"Navy" should not be used to include the Marine Corps.
