

2007

GLOBAL DEMILITARIZATION
SYMPOSIUM AND EXHIBITION

Closing Session

Questions?

Comments!

Open Discussion Forum

Suggestions?

Departing
Friends and Associates

2006-2007

Doc Williamson

- Director of Ammunition Operations, Anniston Defense Munitions Center
- Anniston, Alabama
- Doc Williamson was instrumental in establishing the first and only missile recycling center at Anniston Defense Munitions Center, changing the way the Army will demilitarize missiles and ammunition for years to come.
- Retired January 2, 2007 with 41 years of service

Dan Burch

- Project Manager for Demilitarization Technology Naval Surface Warfare Center, Crane Division
- Crane, Indiana
- JOCG Demil/Disposal Subgroup Principal Member
- Retired January 3, 2007 with 41 years of service.

Lou Ligeno

- Joint Munitions Command
- Rock Island, Illinois
- Chief, Demil/Maint ILS Division
- Retired January 3, 2007

Dr. William Melvin

- Research Chemist, US Army Aviation and Missile Research Development and Engineering Center (AMRDEC)
- Huntsville, Alabama
- AMRDEC Technical Lead for Army Missile Demil Research and Development
- Retired March 3, 2007 with 35 years of service

Richard Noll

- Letterkenny Munitions Center
- Chambersburg, PA
- Retiring on June 28, 2007 with 33 years of service

Herman Milsap

- Civilian Executive Assistant, Hawthorne Army Depot
- Hawthorne, NV
- Retiring September 2, 2007 with 42 years of service

Friends Lost
But Never Forgotten

2007

Florentino "Tiny" Cardenas

January 22, 1947 to March 11, 2007

- Civilian Executive Assistant, Hawthorne Army Depot
- Hawthorne, NV

James "Jim" Wheeler

July 1, 1950 to February 5, 2007

- Director, US Army Defense Ammunition Center
- McAlester, OK
- Chair, Joint Ordnance Commanders Group, Demil/Disposal Subgroup

Global Demilitarization Symposium

May 17, 2007

- Summary

- NDIA will send all attendees a link to access the proceedings
 - Within two weeks
- The 2008 symposium is scheduled for 19-22 May at the Dallas Fairmont Hotel

Demil Users Group Meeting

16th Annual Demil Users Group Meeting

31 October 2007

The Marriott Albuquerque Hotel

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Hotel Reservations: 1-800-334-2086