

Overview Presentation

Agenda

1. Success Story
2. Situation
3. Lines of Operation
4. Velocity & Precision
5. Continuous Improvement
6. Our Team

Purpose: To provide an overview of the responsibilities, challenges, and accomplishments of the sustainment professionals in support of draw down.

Success Story

Going home These MRAP trucks are just some of the thousands of vehicles due to be transported out of Iraq
JOHAN BRANDED—THE NEW YORK TIMES/REDUX

The Washington Post

Operation Iraqi Freedom ends as last combat soldiers leave Baghdad

By Ernesto Londoño
Washington Post Foreign Service
Thursday, August 19, 2010

Lt. Col. Mark Bieger huddled his infantrymen in a darkened parking lot minutes before they were to depart Baghdad for the last time.

THIS STORY

- In Iraq, a precarious time plagued by "what ifs"
- A truly historic end to 7 years of war

• Faces of the Fallen: Service members who died in Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom

View All Items in This Story

"This is a historic mission!" he bellowed, struggling to be heard over the zoom of fighter jets and unmanned drones deployed to watch over the brigade's convoy to Kuwait. "A truly historic end to seven years of war."

Last U.S. combat troops leave Iraq

The 4th Stryker Brigade, 2nd Infantry Division, which left Iraq this week, was the final U.S. combat brigade to be pulled out of the country.

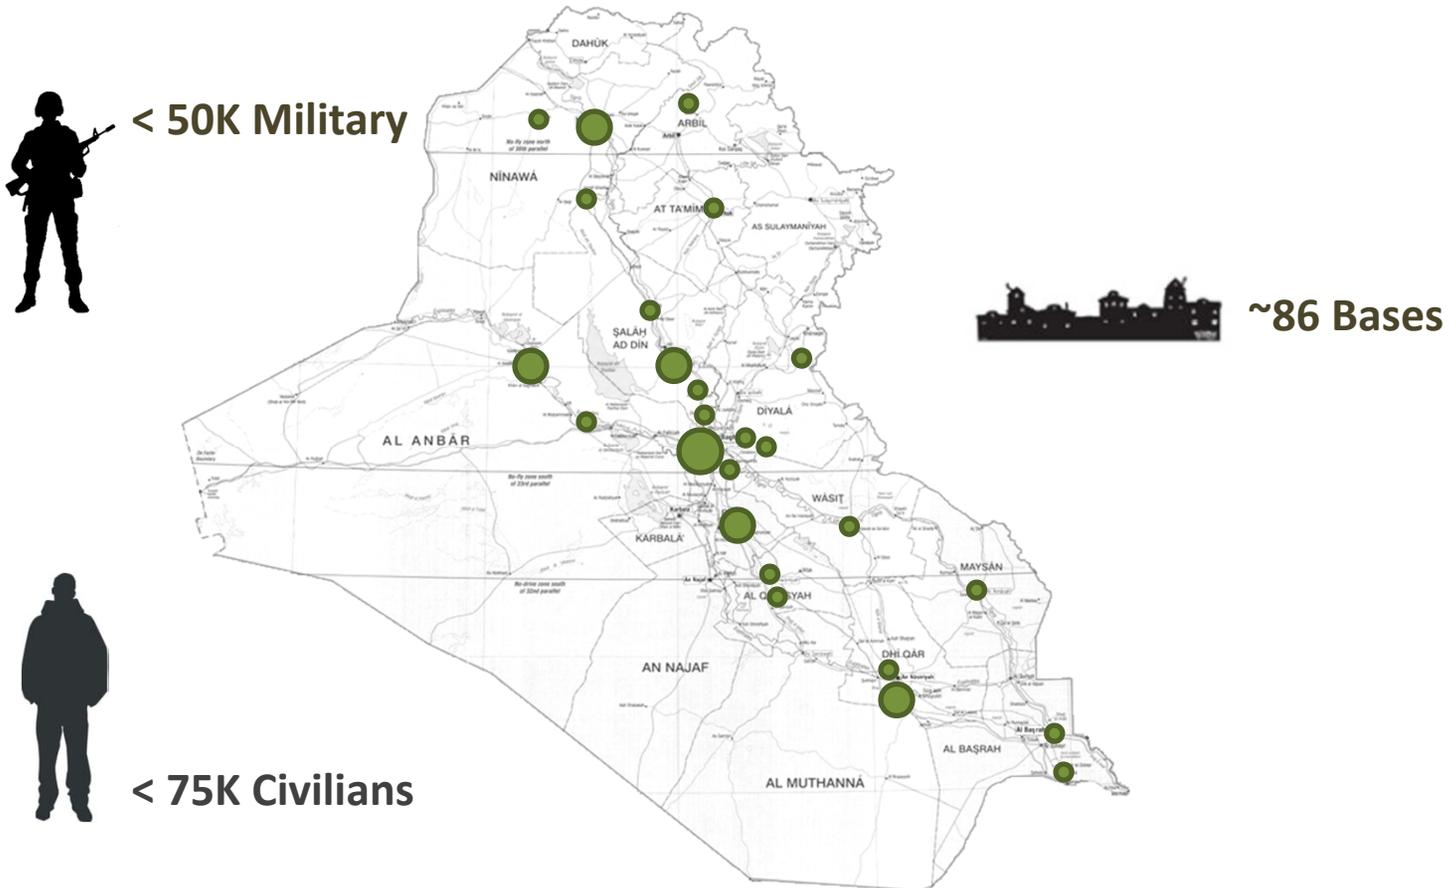

LAUNCH PHOTO GALLERY

- With Honor & Success
 - 100% property accountability
 - Developed plan; rehearsed 5 times (foxhole to APOD/SPOD)
 - June 09 – Aug 10
 - 25K pieces of Rolling Stock
 - 1.5M pieces of Non Rolling Stock
- Great team effort
- We “rehearsed” the next phase

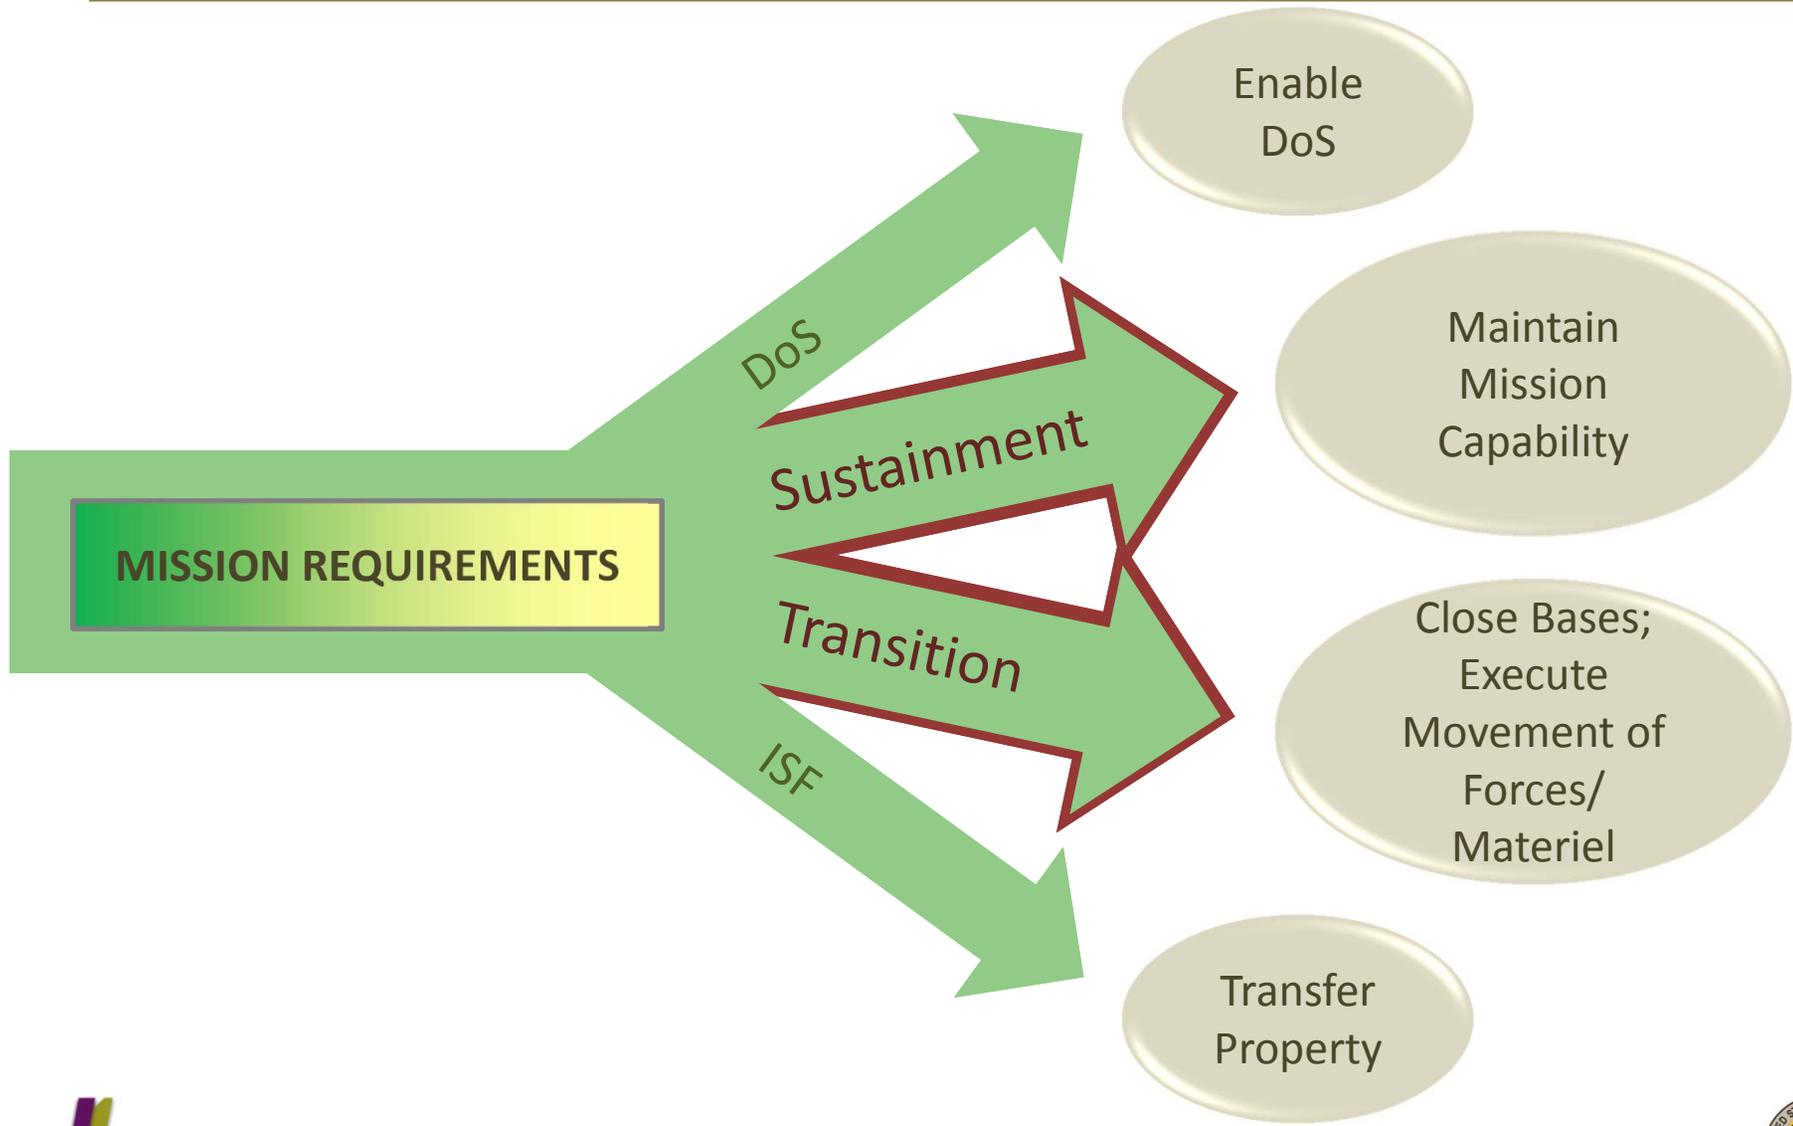

Mission in Context

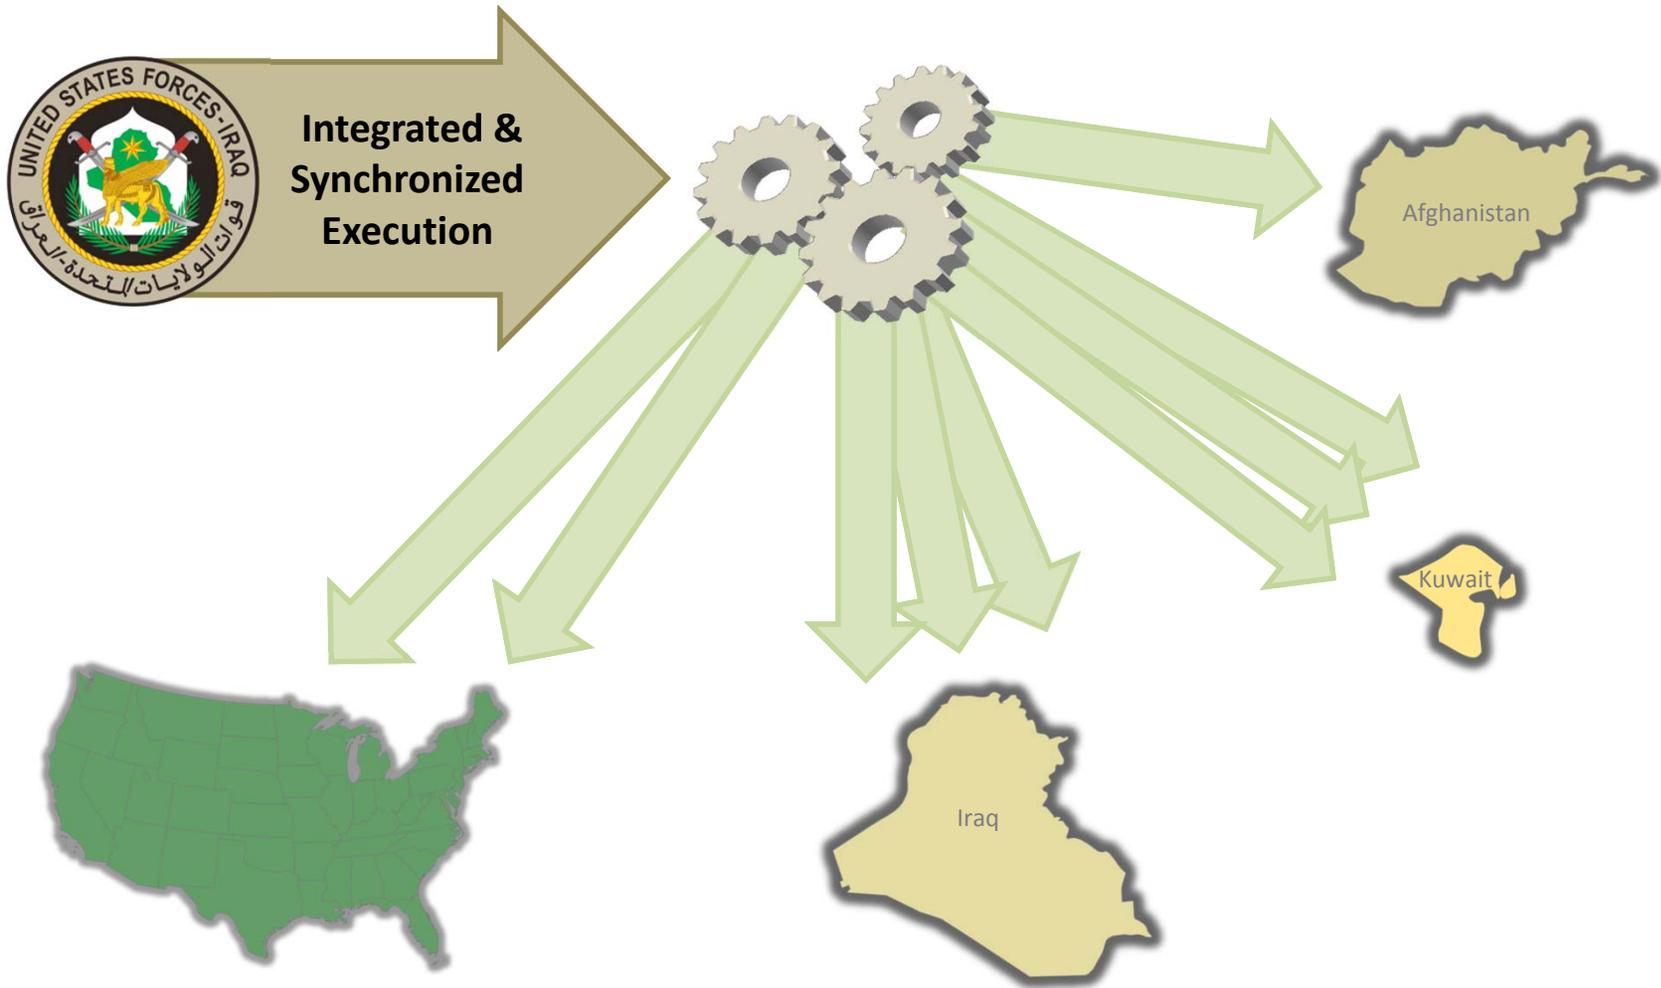

Iraq Joint Operational Area

Lines of Operation

Velocity & Precision

Continuous Improvement

- THINK BIG, START SMALL...
 - RIGHT SIZE
 - CREATE FLOW

- TOO MUCH CAPABILITY BLURS OUR VISION

- SHAPE SUPPORT FOR MISSION REQUIREMENTS:
 - CONTINGENCY
 - SUSTAINMENT
 - DRAW DOWN

- OPEN AND TRANSPARENT COMMUNICATION

Our Team

INDUSTRY

