average monthly civilian earned income. The amount the Secretary concerned determines based on either the Service member’s total earned income for either the 12 full months preceding the Service member’s service on involuntary active duty or the 12 months covered by the Service member’s most recent federal income tax filing, divided by 12.

break in active duty service. A period of 1 calendar day or greater in which the Service member is not on an active duty order (voluntary or involuntary).

involuntary active duty. An order to active duty without the consent of the member in accordance with the authority in section 688, 12301(a), 12301(g), 12302, 12304, 12304a, or 12304b of Reference (h), an order to full-time National Guard duty in accordance with section 502(f)(1)(A) of Title 32, U.S.C. (Reference (m)), or section 712 of Title 14, U.S.C. (Reference (n)).

monthly active duty income differential. The difference between the average monthly civilian earned income of the member and the member’s total monthly military compensation, when the total monthly military compensation of the member is less than the average monthly civilian earned income of the member.

regular military compensation. Defined in section 101(25) of Reference (b).

total earned income. Wages, salaries, tips, professional fees, other compensation received for personal services and employee compensation that is included in gross income for the taxable year, plus any net earnings from self-employment for the taxable year. Earned income includes taxable compensation members of the Reserve Components receive. Employee pay is earned income if it is taxable. Nontaxable pay, such as certain dependent care benefits and adoption benefits, is not earned income. Generally, earned income is income reflected in box 1 of an individual’s W-2 form and is reported on Internal Revenue Service form 1040, lines 7, 12, and 18.

TMMC. An amount computed on a monthly basis that is the sum of the Service member’s regular military compensation and the amount of any special pays, incentive pays, and allowances (not including regular military compensation) that are paid on a monthly basis (e.g., foreign language proficiency annual bonus that is paid in monthly installments; overseas extension bonus that is paid on a monthly basis). Bonuses paid in lump sum or in anniversary installments, such as enlistments, re-enlistments and affiliation bonuses, are not included in the TMMC. Cost of living allowances are included in TMMC. Per diem, to include meals and incidental expenses, is not included in TMMC.
