SUBJECT: DoD Intelligence Collection Management

References: See Enclosure 1

1. PURPOSE. This Instruction:

   a. Establishes policy and assigns responsibilities for intelligence collection management (CM) in the DoD in accordance with the authorities in DoD Directive (DoDD) 5143.01, DoDD 5105.21, DoDD 5240.01, Intelligence Community Directive Number 300, and DoDD S-3325.02 (References (a) through (e)).

   b. Establishes the Defense CM Board (DCMB) (Enclosure 2) in accordance with DoD Instruction (DoDI) 5105.18 (Reference (f)) to assist the Defense Collection Manager (DCM) to provide overarching DoD CM guidance and evaluate performance and effectiveness of DoD CM activities in satisfying intelligence needs.

2. APPLICABILITY. This Instruction applies to OSD, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard at all times, including when it is a Service in the Department of Homeland Security by agreement with that Department), the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands (CCMDs), the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (hereinafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”).

3. DEFINITIONS. See Glossary.

4. POLICY. It is DoD policy that:

   a. DoD CM activities shall be:
(1) Conducted pursuant to the authorities and restrictions of the U.S. Constitution, applicable law, and DoD policies and in accordance with the procedures set forth in Executive Order 12333 and DoD 5240.1-R (References (g) and (h)).

(2) Executed in a coordinated, coherent, and decentralized manner to maximize efficiency and effectiveness of an integrated Defense CM Enterprise (DCME).

(3) Responsive to the intelligence information needs of national and DoD policymakers, commanders, planners, acquisition officials, and intelligence analysts.

b. DoD collection managers shall:

(1) Measure the effectiveness of their CM strategies and the satisfaction of collection requirements across all disciplines.

(2) Be certified in and adhere to core common CM standards.

c. CM capabilities and tools shall be compatible and consistent with DoD and Intelligence Community (IC) data standards, architectures, processes, and procedures.

d. Special Access Programs and other sensitive activities will be integrated into the CM process whenever possible to effectively support policy formulation, strategic decision making, planning, and operational execution.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES. See Enclosure 3.

6. RELEASABILITY. UNLIMITED. This Instruction is approved for public release and is available on the Internet from the DoD Issuances Website at http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Instruction:

a. Is effective September 17, 2012.

b. Must be reissued, cancelled, or certified current within 5 years of its publication to be considered current in accordance with DoD Instruction 5025.01 (Reference (i)).
c. If not, it will expire effective September 17, 2022 and be removed from the DoD Issuances Website if it hasn’t been reissued or cancelled in accordance with Reference (i).

DCMB

1. PURPOSE. The DCMB shall:

   a. Be the primary forum for coordinating activities and resolving issues related to DoD CM.

   b. Assist the DCM in managing the DoD collection requirements process, including coordination among the major collection disciplines within the DCME. To this end, the DCMB shall:

       (1) Determine:

           (a) Priorities for collaborative CM strategies.

           (b) DoD collection assessment focus areas.

           (c) DoD collection priorities and inform other processes that affect capabilities and readiness.

       (2) Provide a forum for determining DoD collections support for national intelligence and coordinating multinational collections.

2. MANAGEMENT AND MEMBERSHIP

   a. The DoD Functional Manager for Collection Management (FM/CM), designated by the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), shall chair the DCMB.

   b. The membership of the DCMB shall be limited to full-time or permanent part-time Government employees or members and shall consist of:

       (1) General or flag officers (G/FOs) or equivalent civilian representatives provided by the:

           (a) Deputy Director of National Intelligence – Intelligence Integration.

           (b) Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (USD(I)).

           (c) Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (USD(P)).

           (d) CJCS.

           (e) DIA.
(f) National Security Agency (NSA)/Central Security Service (CSS).

(g) National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA).

(h) National Reconnaissance Office (NRO).

(i) CCMDs.

(j) Military Services.

(k) Assistant Commandant for Intelligence and Criminal Investigations, U.S. Coast Guard.

(2) With approval of the USD(I), the requirement for G/FO or equivalent civilian representation may be waived. The requirement for representation by full-time or permanent part-time Government employees or members shall not be waived.

c. After prior coordination with the DCMB Chair to verify security, disclosure, and release issues are addressed, members may invite guest attendees from organizations associated with DoD CM, which may include:

(1) IC members.

(2) Federal agencies.

(3) Tribal, State, or local governments.

(4) Foreign governments.

d. The DoD FM/CM shall provide for Executive Secretariat support for the DCMB, to include identifying locations, preparing and publishing minutes, announcing agenda, and providing for web support. This support may be provided by any member organization of the DCMB, but will be coordinated by the DoD FM/CM.

e. The membership of the DCMB shall be supported by Defense CM Working Groups (DCMWGs) to address issues as determined by the DCMB. These shall consist of a standing DCMWG and specialized working groups established according to Reference (f) to address specific issues.
ENCLOSURE 3

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. USD(I). The USD(I), in accordance with Reference (a), shall:

   a. Oversee DoD CM plans, policies, and programs, including training, certification, and professional development programs in accordance with DoDI 3115.11 (Reference (j)).

   b. Provide direction and guidance to DoD Components conducting CM activities, including resolution of issues raised by the DCMB for USD(I) decision.

   c. Maintain Defense CM capabilities and ensure DCME sustainability.

   d. Provide representation to the DCMB.

2. DIRECTOR, DIA. The Director, DIA, or his or her designated representative, in accordance with Reference (b), under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:

   a. As DCM:

      (1) Integrate, coordinate, and synchronize Defense CM.

      (2) Serve as the Defense CM Authority.

      (3) Appoint a DoD FM/CM to:

         (a) Monitor and assess the DCME and recommend changes to DoD policy and doctrine, organization, training, materiel, leadership and education, personnel, and facilities (DOTMLPF), as appropriate, to improve standardization and operational effectiveness of the DCME.

         (b) Set standards for training, certification, and professional development for the DoD CM mission category workforce.

         (c) Advocate for resources required for DoD intelligence collection.

         (d) Determine functional requirements for CM-related compartmented special programs.

         (4) Promote coordination, cooperation, information sharing, and cross-service management of CM within the DoD and the IC to support implementation of USD(I) responsibilities in accordance with the authorities and restrictions of the U.S. Constitution, applicable law, and DoD policies, including Reference (c).

(5) Assess the readiness of the DCME on a recurring basis and advocate for materiel and non-materiel requirements to the Joint Staff through the Joint Capabilities Integration Development Process System to address DCME capability gaps and shortfalls.

(6) Develop and execute the Defense CM Program (DCMP). Advocate CM programmatic requirements to the USD(I) through the planning, programming, budgeting, and execution process.

(7) Issue CM operating procedures and standards, consistent with national and DoD policies and strategic guidance, including the National Intelligence Strategy (Reference (k)), to enhance DCME effectiveness.

(8) Manage and lead the development of CM as a mission category and an intelligence occupation, and develop joint CM training, education, and certification standards. Manage collection assessment as a sub-discipline of the CM occupation.

(9) Chair the DCMB, as described in Enclosure 2.

(10) Establish a standing DCMWG for identification, discussion, and resolution of DoD-wide collection management enterprise issues, with results reported to the DCMB. The standing CMWG will be comprised of members from across the DCME.

(11) Set priorities for DoD collection requirements, consistent with national and DoD strategic intelligence priorities, including appropriately reflecting the operational and planning priorities of the CCMDs, Military Services, and Defense Agencies.

(12) Coordinate DoD FM/CM activities with the DoD Functional Manager for Analysis to integrate all-source intelligence analysis and CM processes.

(13) Coordinate DoD FM/CM activities with the DoD Counterintelligence (CI) Production Manager to ensure that CI analysis and CM processes are fully integrated in accordance with DoDI 5240.18 (Reference (l)).

(14) Establish DCME configuration oversight procedures and resource guidelines for collection requirements and collection operations architectural integration to enable streamlined and integrated intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (ISR) and national technical means CM.

(15) Establish DCME data standards and oversight for DoD CM and ISR support tools; coordinate standards with responsible national-level and Defense Intelligence Component functional managers.
(16) Validate, recommend prioritization for national collection systems, and ensure that Defense intelligence requirements are registered in the appropriate collection management system and tasked for collection.

(17) In coordination with all DCME organizations, develop and implement all-source intelligence collection strategies in support of priority IC or DoD-wide intelligence information needs, often spanning two or more CCMDs. Assist CCMDs to integrate all-source intelligence collection strategies into collection plans.

(18) Assess collected information against stated needs and recommend adjustments to plans, missions, and other actions to improve collection results.

(19) Coordinate collection responsibility and monitor the application of DoD intelligence collection resources to requirements.

   b. As Defense Human Intelligence (HUMINT) Manager, in accordance with DoDD S-5200.37 (Reference (m)), coordinate DoD HUMINT CM functional management matters with the DoD FM/CM in order to integrate HUMINT into the all-source intelligence CM and other mission management processes.

   c. As the Defense Measurement and Signature Intelligence (MASINT) Manager, in accordance with DoDI 5105.58 (Reference (n)), coordinate DoD MASINT CM functional management matters with the DoD FM/CM in order to integrate MASINT into the all-source intelligence CM and other mission management processes.

   d. Through the Director, Defense CI and HUMINT Center, as As the Defense CI Collection Manager, in accordance with DoDI S-5240.17 (Reference (o)):

      (1) Coordinate DoD-related CI collection requirements management (CRM) activities with the DoD FM/CM.

      (2) Fully integrate CI collection requirements into collection strategies managed by the CCMDs and the DCM.

      (3) Maintain consistency with CM priorities.

3. DIRECTOR, NGA. The Director, NGA, under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:

   a. Advise the DCM on geospatial intelligence (GEOINT) CM policy and procedures.

   b. Coordinate DoD-related GEOINT CRM activities with the DCM and ensure consistency of priorities.
c. Coordinate DoD-related GEOINT CM resource needs, strategy, and budget with the DCM to ensure an integrated, multi-discipline approach to advocating for DCME needs and priorities.

d. Provide input, as requested, to DCMP reviews.

e. Coordinate with the DCM on GEOINT collection requirements, collection operations architectural integration, and data standards to ensure DoD collection systems interoperability.

f. Assign a CM senior representative to the DCMB.

g. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

4. DIRECTOR, NSA/CHIEF, CSS (DIRNSA/CHCSS). The DIRNSA/CHCSS, under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:

a. Advise the DCM on signals intelligence (SIGINT) CM policy and procedures.

b. Advise the DCM of DoD-related SIGINT CRM activities.

c. Coordinate DoD-related SIGINT CM resource needs, strategy, and budget with the DCM to ensure an integrated, multi-discipline approach to advocating for DCME needs and priorities.

d. Provide input, as requested, to DCMP reviews.

e. Advise the DCM on SIGINT collection requirements, collection operations architectural integration, and data standards to ensure DoD collection systems interoperability and configuration management.

f. Assign a CM senior representative to the DCMB.

g. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

5. DIRECTOR, NRO. The Director, NRO, under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:

a. Advise the DCM on the status and integration of the national systems and architecture.

b. Ensure that recommendations for national systems and architecture are consistent with DCM priorities.

c. Coordinate DoD-related collection resource needs and budget with the DCM to ensure an integrated, multi-discipline approach for advocating for next generation national systems intelligence capabilities to support DCME needs and priorities.
d. Provide input, as required, to DCMP reviews.

e. Assign a senior representative to the DCMB.

f. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

6. USD(P). The USD(P) shall:

a. Assign a senior representative to the DCMB.

b. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

c. Provide input on mission needs, collection priorities and requirements, and force management issues.

d. Advise the USD(I) on DoD CM strategic, operational, and planning priorities.

7. SECRETARIES OF THE MILITARY DEPARTMENTS. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall:

a. Identify Service-specific intelligence priorities and advise the DCM on projected national security trends affecting the Services.

b. Coordinate Service-related CM resource needs, strategy, and budget with the DCM for purposes of overall advocacy of DoD CM needs and priorities.

c. Coordinate with the DCM on Service collection requirements, data standards, and operations architectural integration to ensure DoD collection systems interoperability and configuration management.

d. Provide input to the DCMP reviews.

e. Identify personnel requirements for collection managers in support of Service intelligence and operations missions, and develop and implement procedures and guidance to comply with direction and guidance for training standardization and certification programs.

f. Assign a senior representative to the DCMB. The Navy shall designate both a Navy and Marine Corps representative.

g. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

8. CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall:
a. Advise the DCM on DoD intelligence collection requirements and resources.

b. Ensure collection requirements appropriately reflect the operational and planning priorities of the CCMDs, Services, and Defense Agencies.

c. Advise the DCM on joint doctrine, architecture, and the Joint Requirements Oversight Council process.

d. Identify and prioritize CCMD CM architecture needs and requirements to the DCM.

e. Provide feedback on the effectiveness of CM support to joint forces to the DCM.

f. Provide input, as requested, to DCMP reviews.

g. Assign a senior representative to the DCMB.

h. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

i. Serve as the lead for CM lessons learned at the joint task force, strategic-theater and strategic-national levels of operations, and gather, analyze, and vet best practices to develop recommendations to change DOTMLPF, as appropriate, on behalf of the DCME and in close coordination with the DoD FM/CM.

j. Assist in the development of CM training and readiness standards and develop and maintain CM Universal Joint Intelligence Task Lists.

k. Plan and conduct DCME readiness assessments in coordination with the DoD FM/CM.

l. Integrate ISR concepts of operation and doctrine which are relevant to CM into DCME concepts of operation in support of the DCM.

9. COMMANDERS OF THE CCMDS. The Commanders of the CCMDs shall:

   a. Provide collection plans to the DCM to expedite CRM validation and ensure consistency of priorities and synchronization of Defense CM.

   b. Provide priority intelligence requirements (PIRs) and advise the DCM on near-term national security implications and trends impacting each of their respective Commands.

   c. Coordinate CCMD CM resource needs, strategy, and budget with the DCM in support of the DCMP development process.
d. Coordinate CCMD collection requirements, collection operations architectural integration, and applicable data standards with the DCM to ensure DoD collection systems are interoperable and subject to common DCME configuration management policies, procedures, and standards.

e. Assign a senior representative to the DCMB.

f. Support the DCMWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

g. Provide input, as requested, to DCMP reviews.

h. Identify personnel requirements for collection managers in support of CCMDs intelligence and operations missions.

i. Develop and implement procedures and guidance to comply with direction and guidance for training standardization and certification program.

10. ASSISTANT COMMANDANT FOR INTELLIGENCE AND CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS, U.S. COAST GUARD. The Assistant Commandant for Intelligence and Criminal Investigations, U.S. Coast Guard shall:

a. Provide input, as requested, to DCMP reviews.

b. Assign a representative to the DCMB.

c. Support the DCMGWG and specialized working groups as determined by the DCMB.

PART II. DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise noted, these terms and their definitions are for the purpose of this Instruction.

all-source intelligence. Defined in Joint Publication 1-02 (Reference (p)).

CM. Defined in Reference (p).

CM strategy. The method used by a collection manager, based on established CM standards, available collection capabilities, and collection target characteristics, to establish, prioritize, and submit collection requirements in a deliberate, focused, integrated, and synchronized manner across multiple intelligence disciplines. The goals of a CM strategy are to identify, allocate, and apply national, theater and tactical ISR resources and capabilities; to task these resources, to submit requirements, to collect in a way that effectively and efficiently answers the customer's PIRs; support analytic intelligence information shortfalls and gaps; and to support the development of effective and responsive collection plans to support the adaptive planning process.

collection. Defined in Reference (p).

collection manager. Defined in Reference (p).

CRM. Defined in Reference (p).

DCME. DoD organizations responsible for CM: the CCMDs, Defense intelligence combat support agencies, Military Services, intelligence-related DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within DoD conducting intelligence collection and other non-DoD entities that are conducting Defense intelligence collection under the Secretary of Defense’s authority.

DCMP. A comprehensive Defense CM program for assuring the performance of the DCME against national and DoD collection requirements and standards and for providing associated National Intelligence Program and Military Intelligence Program resources.

Defense CM Authority. The DoD official designated to set priorities for DoD collection requirements consistent with national and DoD strategic intelligence priorities.

Defense Intelligence. Defined in Reference (a).
DoD FM/CM. The DoD FM/CM develops, manages, and executes the DCM’s strategy, policy, professional development, technology and architectures, and resource requirements to enhance the performance of Defense intelligence collection.

DOTMLPF. Defined in Reference (p).
