This Instruction unifies performances of "The Star-Spangled Banner," foreign national anthems, and "Hail to the Chief," as rendered by Military Service Bands.

2. APPLICABILITY

The provisions of this Instruction apply to the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Military Departments. The term "Military Service" refers to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marine Corps and, when under Department of Defense jurisdiction, the Coast Guard.

3. POLICY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1. The U.S. Navy arrangements of "The Star-Spangled Banner," and foreign national anthems, and the U.S. Marine Band arrangement of "Hail to the Chief" are designated as the official DoD arrangements to be rendered by all Service bands on appropriate occasions.

3.2. The traditional musical selection "Hail to the Chief" is designated as a musical tribute to the President of the United States, and may not be performed by military musical organizations as a tribute to other dignitaries. Performances of this selection shall be subject to the following:

3.2.1. During all renditions of "Hail to the Chief" by military musical organizations, military personnel in uniform, other than band personnel, shall accord it the same honor as they would the rendition of "The Star-Spangled Banner" or "To the Color."

3.2.2. If, in the course of any ceremony, it is required that honors be performed more than once, "Hail to the Chief" may be used interchangeably with "The Star-Spangled Banner" as honors to the President of the United States.

3.2.3. When specified by the President, the Secretary of State, the Chief of the Secret Service, or their authorized representatives, "Hail to the Chief" may be used as an opportunity for the President and his immediate party to move to or from their places while all others stand fast.

3.3. When a foreign national anthem is prescribed in connection with honors and it is appropriate to perform "The Star-Spangled Banner," it shall be performed last. When a foreign national anthem or anthems are performed, "The Star-Spangled Banner" shall also be performed last, except when performed in conjunction with morning colors.
