SECTION 1: GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1.1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES. Write DoD issuances clearly and concisely, applying the following general principles of effective writing.

a. When drafting your document, use an outline. This will help you organize your issuance and keep it focused and on track.

b. Use short, simple words. Limit sentences to one thought and keep them brief (an average of 20 or fewer words).

c. Use the correct words. (See Sections 2 and 3 for the glossary of preferred usage and a list of hyphenated modifiers used in DoD issuances.)

d. Write in the active voice instead of the passive voice; name an actor with the action being taken immediately after the noun. See Table 1 for characteristics and examples.

<tr>
<td>Implementing instructions will be issued by the DoD Components.</td>
<td>The DoD Components issue implementing instructions.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

f. Avoid long, rambling paragraphs. If a paragraph is longer than 10 lines, it should probably be restructured to include subparagraphs.

g. Organize the material. Where the issuance templates don’t provide a specific structure, organize sections and appendices so that earlier paragraphs serve to make later paragraphs clear. When possible, use paragraph headings to highlight important concepts so the reader can see at a glance what the paragraph is about.

1.2. RULES SPECIFIC TO DOD ISSUANCES.

a. References.

   (1) Always reference:

       (a) The issuance that provides the purpose of (i.e., reason for) the issuance being drafted and any other issuances that inform its content.
(b) For issuances approved by anyone other than the Secretary or the Deputy Secretary of Defense, the instrument that provides that position the authority to sign it. This is typically the chartering DoD directive of the OSD Component head or Principal Staff Assistant approving the issuance.

(2) Don’t copy from, quote from, or paraphrase material in a reference. Do explain the relationship between the issuance and each reference cited; e.g., (emphasis added):

(a) “All proposals to construct new or modify existing DoD urban training facilities must be evaluated in accordance with DoD Instruction 1322.27.”

(b) “Civilian manpower requirements must be sourced and designated in accordance with the manpower policy and procedures in DoD Instruction 1100.22.”

(c) “The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense and Global Security will serve as the Domestic Crisis Manager among other defense-wide crisis management responsibilities assigned in DoD Directive 3020.44.”

b. Helping Verbs. Use the following helping verbs as necessary to clarify the actor’s level of obligation.

(1) Use “must” to denote a mandatory action.

(2) Use “will” to denote a required action in the future.

(3) Use “may” or “can” to denote an optional action that the actor’s authorized to perform (a right, privilege, or power that the actor may exercise at his or her discretion).

c. Generic Pronouns. Don’t use “he” or “she” or “his” or “her” separately as generic (possessive) pronouns; use “he or she” or “his or her.” If possible, avoid gender specificity by using “they” or “their.”

d. Personal Pronouns and Point of View. Don’t use the personal pronouns “I,” “we,” and “you.” Always write in the third person, using “he or she,” “it,” and “they.”

e. Abbreviations and Acronyms. Write terms out the first time they appear in the text and place the abbreviation or acronym in parenthesis following it. Use the acronym consistently thereafter: don’t repeat the term. A glossary of acronyms and abbreviations is mandatory for issuances over 2 pages using acronyms other than “DoD,” “OSD,” or “U.S.” In accordance with the Plain Writing Act of 2010, consider not using acronyms if the term is used infrequently in your issuance. Do not establish acronyms if the term would be used fewer than three times in the issuance, not including items in the table of contents or reference list.

(1) Acronym as Adjective Only. The acronym “U.S.” may be used in the adjective form only. Spell out “United States” when using the noun form.

(2) Acronyms That Don’t Need to be Established. The acronyms “DoD,” “OSD,” and “U.S.” don’t need to be established upon first use.
(3) Combatant Command Acronyms.

(a) The Combatant Commands are legally named “United States Central Command,” “United States Joint Forces Command,” etc. The acronyms are: USCENTCOM, USEUCOM, USIFCOM, USNORTHCOM, USPACOM, USSOUTHCOM, USSOCOM, USSTRATCOM, and USTRANSCOM.

(b) The abbreviation for “Combatant Command” is “CCMD” – not “COCOM.” See Joint Publication (JP) 1-02, “Department of Defense Dictionary of Military and Associated Terms;” “COCOM” refers to “(combatant command) command authority” and not to the Combatant Command itself.

(c) According to JP 1-02, the abbreviation for “Combatant Commander” is “CCDR.”

(4) Military Terms. Use the approved abbreviations and acronyms in JP 1-02.

(5) Article Usage. Use of the articles “the,” ”a,” and “an” before abbreviations and acronyms will be determined by basic rules of grammar. The use of “a” and “an” depends on the sound of the acronym that follows, not on the first letter. For example, the vowel sound at the beginning of the acronym “MP” (pronounced “em-pea”) requires that “an” be used. However, “a” is used before “MOOTW,” since the acronym is pronounced “moo-twah.”

f. Footnotes, Endnotes, and Use of the Term “Note.” Don’t use the term “NOTE” in DoD issuances. Don’t use endnotes in DoD issuances. Use footnotes only to indicate in the References section where the reader may obtain a reference that isn’t readily available on a government website.

g. Use of the Term “See” and of Parenthetical Remarks. When the term “see” is used as directional material, place the phrase in parentheses at the end of the sentence as a stand-alone sentence, as in the following parenthetical remark. (See Paragraph 1.2.f. for use of the term “note.”) Avoid the use of other parenthetical remarks. If the information’s important to the issuance, incorporate it into the appropriate sentence or paragraph.

h. Use of Directional Terms. Don’t use directional terms or phrases (e.g., “above,” or “below”) when referring to a part of the issuance. Refer to the paragraphs being discussed by number. Avoid using “as follows” or “the following” if possible.

i. Names of Ships and Exercises. Always use all caps for the names of ships (e.g., “USS AGILE,” “USNS IMPECCABLE – not “USS Agile,” “USNS Impeccable”) and military exercises (e.g. “Operation SOUTHERN WATCH” – not “Operation Southern Watch”).

j. Address Blocks in DoD Issuances. In accordance with DoD issuance standards, mailing addresses are the exception to the rule for paragraph numbering and indentation; they may stand alone outside of a figure or table. The address block will be indented from the left margin equal to the first line indent of the paragraph to which the address block belongs; e.g., if an address block followed this paragraph, each line would be .25” from the left margin.
